BRAVE.

Grand Coup for the Japs.

A Big Defeat for the Chinese.

Outposts Stormed and Brilliant Charges Made.

The Pigtails Driven in Confusion From the Field.

Moukden Will Be the Scene of the Next Big Battle.

YOKOHAMA, October 26.—Latest dispatches from Yalu river show that in the battle fought yesterday between the Chinese and Japanese 3500 Coinese troops of all arms were utterly routed.

THE TALE OF THE CONFLICT.

CHEMULPO, October 26.—Dispatches from Wi Ju dated midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and the Japanese across the Yalu river.

General Nodzu, Japenese chief of staff, it appears, succeeded in getting the main body of the Japanese army across the Yalu river, without mishap, before daylight Thursday.

Then Colonel Sato was sent forward at the head of a flying column on a reconnoitering expedition, and he discovered the enemy occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang, on the right bank of the Yalu river.

Though he had no artillery at his disposal, Colonel Sato immediately commenced the attack upon the Chinese, and a fierce fight followed.

The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly.

The attack began at 10 o'clock in the morning and lasted until night, when the Chinese began wavering, broke and eventually retired in great disorder, falling back upon Kulienchas.

The troops commanded by Colonel Sato, after the Chinese had retired, set to work upon the demolishment of the fortifications of Fushang.

Inside of the fortifications they found 200 Chinese dead.

The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was a Chinese officer, who stated that the position was held by eighteen battalions of Chinese troops.

The Japanese escorting the prisoners then marched in the direction of General Nodzu's main body with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is not known.

The Japanese lost five officers and ninety men killed and wounded.

Later dispatches said the Chinese outposts were falling back upon Kulienchas, where it is expected the only determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are complete in every detail for inflicting what he hopes will turn out to be a crushing blow upon the Chinese.

WELL VERSED IN STRATEGY.

Several columns of the Japanese troops are acting in concert after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at Ping Yang, and it is expected they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position.

If the Japanese field marshal's plans are carried out in the manner indicated in dispatches from the front, it is probable the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese attack to be delivered at dawn Sunday.

But if the Japanese columns succeed in occupying the position assigned them previous to midnight Saturday it is believed that an attack will be delivered at the earliest possible moment.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported strength of the Chinese position at Kulienchas.

It is reported that the Japanese batteries at Kalu and Kulien have been increased from three to eleven; but on the other hand, rumor says it is extremely doubtful whether all these batteries are fully armed.

The esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops are excellent, and it is said to be the universal ambition to capture Moukden before the birthday of the Emperor of Japan, November 3d.

Rebels Routed.

TANGIER, October 26.—It is announced that Muley Amin, ordered by the Sultan to go to Melilla with a force of 700 infantry, 700 cavalry and four guns to delimit the Spanish and Moorish frontier, which hitherto has been prevented by the Riff tribesmen, has inflicted a crushing defeat upon rebellious Haishinas.

AN ORATOR MOBBED.

Campaigning Is Not All Easy Sailing in the East.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 26.—The statement is credited of Milton Turner, on the highest authority that he had received a telegram from the Governor of Missouri asking if he wants protection from Missouri against mob violence and suggesting that he ask Governor Mathews of Indiana to to intercede in his behalf.

Turner, who was Minister to Liberia under Grant, attempted to deliver a Democratic speech in this city Wednesday night and was mobbed.

He says now he will probably address the colored people of this city again Saturday when more trouble may be expected.

MODERN GUY FAWKES.

Anarchists Want to Blow Up the French Parliament.

PARIS, October 26.—Le Matin states that information was recently received at the Prefecture of Police that three anarchists have resolved to come to Paris from Poissy, Lille and Lyons for the purpose of blowing up the Chamber of Deputies.

The Palais Bourbon is watched by police with redoubled vigilance, and the strictest surveillance is exercised over all suspected persons.

WESTERN WINGS

Advices Received From Honolulu and Samoa.

Royalists Again Talking About an Uprising.

Native Chiefs Still Under Arms in the South Seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 26.—The steamship Alameda arrived this morning from Sydney, Auckland, Apia and Honolulu bringing the following news advices from special correspondents of the Associated Press:

HONOLULU, October 18.—Rumors of a Royalist uprising have been very scarce for the last few months, but now that the first election of the new Republic draws near, these reports have again been circulated.

This time election day, October 20th, has been chosen as the date of an attempt to restore the ex-Queen, but very little stock is taken in the tale.

Nominations for Senators and Representatives have been made.

Out of the twelve chosen for this island (Oahu), only two are natives, and this has caused some criticism among the native annexationists.

Every nominee has been pledged to the support of the annexation plank in the platform to the exclusion of everything else.

Sanford Fleming, an Englishman, who has been in Honolulu for some time in the interests of the British Cable Company, leaves on the steamer today.

He has asked the Government to cede Necker island, which was the cause of so much comment a few months ago, to England, claiming that if this is done the cable project will be at once carried through, and Necker island will be a half-way house between Victoria and Australia, with a branch line to Honolulu.

He has also asked for an exclusive cable right on Hawaiian territory.

The latter proposition has not met with the approval of the Hawaiian Government and will probably not be acceded to.

The former grant would probably be made under certain conditions.

At present, no definite arrangement has been concluded.

SAMOAN NEWS.

APIA, Samoa, October 10.—There have been no recent conflicts between rival native bands.

All the warriors are still under arms, however, and the people here are prepared for an outbreak to occur at any time.

The Samoan Land Commission, which had prepared to hold sittings in the District of Atua to dispose of the cases there, were notified by the heads of the rebel party that they would not be allowed to do so.

The letter sent was a most important one.

It is expected the commission will now proceed to Atua on one of the warships.

A movement has been secretly inaugurated here to circulate a petition to the three treaty powers, urging the removal of President Schmidt, with whose administration there is considerable dissatisfaction.

Panic in a Church.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 26.—During the consecration of a church in Trokh, near Ostrovlansky, a lamp was upset. A cry of "fire" was raised and a panic followed. In the rush for the doors, two women and three children were trampled to death. Twenty-seven people were seriously injured.

Object to Education.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The War Department has referred to General McCook, commanding the Department of the Colorado, the complaint of the Indian Bureau that the Moquis Indians of Arizona threatens to outbreak as a result of the attempt of the agent to place their children in school. As the Moquis number but 500 and are not warlike not much importance is attached to their threats.

A Delay.

Another delay has taken place in the proposed moving of the Central Free Reading Room to 64 and 66 San Pablo avenue. The transfer was to have been made tomorrow, but cannot take place till Monday next.

The "Chicago" in Portugal.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The United States steamer Chicago has arrived at Lisbon.

THE HAYWARDS RALLY.

County Candidates Are Welcomed With Open Arms.

The Republican county candidates were given a grand reception at Haywards last night. This was the first visit made by the candidates since the Republican Convention was held in the town.

The meeting was held in Native Sons' Hall. The hall had been very prettily decorated with flowers and flags.

A pretty feature of the meeting was the presentation to each speaker of a large bouquet.

Prior to the meeting there was an impromptu parade through the streets.

County Committeeman Hawes called the meeting to order and introduced H. E. Bruner, president of the Haywards Republican Club, as chairman of the evening. Mr. Bruner said that as there were a number of speakers present he would not take up the time of the audience in making a speech.

A ladies' quartet sang in a pleasing manner. The Campaign quartet was also present and made the usual hit.

A. L. Frick was then introduced as speaker of the evening. Mr. Frick made an able address and was frequently applauded.

After commenting upon the importance of this election to the people of this State and its effect upon the future of the Republican party he proceeded to examine the records of both parties in this State and fully demonstrated by official statistics that affairs have been more economically administered in this State under Republican administrations than under Democratic. He called attention to the fact that the Governor had no power to reduce State expenditures except by the exercise of the veto power, and arraigned Mr. Budd for making promises that he knew he could not fulfil. The speaker contrasted the Democrat's flippant oratory, impossible promises and undignified conduct in this campaign with the manly bearing and dignified utterances of Mr. Estee. Continuing he said:

"The worst kind of a falsehood is the truth but half told, and the most dangerous man is the demagogue who tells half the truth and conceals the other half for the purpose of self aggrandisement."

He accused Mr. Budd of doing this in his comparisons of the expense of running our State Prisons with the expense to those States that have the system of convict labor in the manufacture of articles, and the bringing of free labor into competition with convict labor.

"With reference to bossism in politics, he said: "I deny that the Convention that gave to the Republican ticket the name of F. W. Henshaw for Justice of the Supreme Court, was dominated by any boss or by any influence other than the honest effort of the respective delegations of independent men at Sacramento, to give to us a ticket, the election of which would insure an honest and economical government of affairs."

Calling attention to the fact that the country was prosperous and her people happy at the close of the Harrison Administration, he charged the business depression and the fact that 2,000,000 men in the nation are out of employment to the hostile character of the present administration to our industries and laborers. He then exhaustively dealt with the provisions of the Wilson bill, and called attention to its discriminations against the industries of California, and particularly to the wool, fruit, hop and sugar beet industries.

Continuing, he added: "The Republicans have nominated a ticket, State, county and Legislative, worthy of your respect and confidence, from which not one single name should be erased; a ticket composed of men the election of whom will insure an honest, fearless, efficient, and economical administration of public affairs in every department."

In closing, he predicted that the people of this State would "marshal themselves under the standard of the Republican party and with protection, reciprocity and the equal rights of all, inscribed upon their banner, march in solid phalanx to the polls on the 6th of November and cast their ballots for that exponent of true Americanism—the able statesman, the honest man, M. M. Estee, and the whole Republican ticket, State, county and Legislative."

Dr. Tisdale of Alameda now made a few remarks, and spoke particulary of his friend James B. Barber, whom he nominated for Tax Collector.

The county candidates were next introduced, and all made short speeches. George W. Frick was given an ovation when he appeared on the platform. Haywards is his old home, and the people cheered him in royal style.

The meeting then adjourned amid cheers.

A DUAL LIFE.

Trainrobber Abroad, Respected at Home.

A Quiet Little Town Stirred Up in Missouri.

One of Its Leading Citizens Proves to Be a Desperado.

NEELYVILLE, Mo., October 26.—When the people of this quiet little city read of the bold hold-up and express robbery at Aquia Creek they little thought the leader of the desperadoes was one of their most respected citizens.

Charles A. Morgan and his handsome young wife have been residents of Neelyville for the past two years.

Morgan would frequently be gone for a month or two at a time, but the people here thought nothing of it and no one suspected that he was other than a man of property who could afford to take little pleasure trips at his will.

The first connection between Morgan of Neelyville and Morganfield was suspected by Chief of Police Charles Flanagan when Morganfield was found with his leg broken near Cincinnati.

Mr. Flanagan at once took steps to confirm his suspicion.

The indentification was complete when he received a photograph from the Chief of Police of Cincinnati of Morganfield as he lay on his couch at the city hospital.

Morgan left here nearly two months ago and not even his wife knew where he was, and had not heard from him since he left.

Mrs. Morgan is a lady in every particular and is much distressed at the accusations against her husband, saying that "Charley had too much sense to do such a thing."

Since Morgan has lived here he has made many friends, and the people can scarcely credit the statement that he could commit such a deed.

While they admit that Morgan and Morganfield are one and the same, they still think that there must be some grievous mistake and that he was not connected with the robbery.

Morgan, while at home was strictly temperate, paying his debts promptly, and it is believed has considerable property.

A RUMPUS RAISED.

Populist Orators Warring on the Streets.

There was strong evidence of anything but harmony among the members of the People's Party, this morning, in front of the entrance to the headquarters on Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth streets.

J. H. Fones, the street talker, and agitator Stetson, exchanged compliments. Fones characterizing Stetson as a traitor, and Stetson responding by calling Fones a coward and upstart, and a puffed up pretender who could murder more English language in a minute than a gatling gun could in a year.

Fones made little headway against Stetson when it was a case of tongue against tongue. He gradually drew away from his irate little opponent, and disappeared up the stairway leading to the headquarters.

Stetson followed, applying various epithets upon the retreating street orator, and threatening to punch his two eyes into one.

The belligerents attracted a large number of spectators, some of whom endeavored to make the fighters substitute fists for words, and they came very near being successful, too.

The Euskar Turns Up.

QUEENSTOWN, October 26.—The British steamer Euskar, from Philadelphia, October 4th, for London, for the safety of which some fears were felt, has been towed to this port with its shaft broken by the steamer McGarel from Norfolk.

The Ameer Is All Right.

CALCUTTA, October 26.—News has been received at Simla, dated October 20th, from Gaboul, that the Ameer of Afghanistan was attending to business as usual.

A Warehouse Destroyed.

CHICAGO, October 26.—One of the large warehouses of the William Deering Reaping Works was burned today. Loss, $100,000; insured.

KILLS DISEASE.

A Discovery of Great Value to Medicine.

Innoculation for Diphtheria and Croup.

Splendid Results So Far From Using the Serum.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The new treatment by innoculation for diphtheria and croup, as practiced in France, is the subject of a special report to the State Department by United States Consul C. W. Chancellor at Havre.

He says by that method of treatment only one out of four diphtheretic patients succumb, whereas the figure is double for other methods of treatment heretofore applied.

Consequently the Consul, who is a Baltimore physician of repute, says that it would seem very desirable that the anti-diphtheretic serum should be introduced and come into general use at the earliest period practicable in America, where many thousand children and numerous physicians, students and nurses die annually from diphtheria and croup.

The Consul gives in detail a history of the development of the treatment by D. Pasteur and his assistant, Dr. Roux, who have been experimenting with it for five years, keeping it secret until they had satisfied themselves of its efficiency and had subjected the animal (the horse) best adapted to transform diphtheretic poison into an anti-toxine.

A trial of the new treatment at one of the largest children's hospitals of Paris resulted in reducing the death rate from diphtheria from 51.70 per cent to 24.33 per cent.

In addition it is stated that children vaccinated with the serum were protected from the disease even while living in close contact with diphtheretic patients.

As the Pasteur Institute cannot meet the great demand for the serum, movements are on foot in different localities to establish auxiliary stations.

In slight cases one injection of the serum is sufficient, while the ordinary case yields to two.

NO WORK NOW.

A Cargo of Provisions for the Hungry Army.

Bounteous Supply Provided by a Rancher.

The Industrials Getting Ready for Their Grand March.

The Industrials are assured of provisions for some time to come. Yesterday a Stockton rancher, named Weston, called at headquarters and offered to loan a schooner to the Weavers and fill it with vegetables, consisting chiefly of potatoes and beans, if Kelley would send a crew to bring the craft down. Of course the offer was accepted, and yesterday afternoon three men were sent to the Slough City. They expect to arrive in Oakland tomorrow afternoon.

There is a dark and dismal uncertainty about the movements of the army in the country. One of the officers said this morning that the chevaliers d'industrie will return to Oakland tomorrow morning, unless the leaders changed their plans again.

One by one the choice spirits who elected a new set of officers every other day in Cartier's barn last spring, and finally sailed away under the leadership of Admiral Smith, are returning to town to make ready for the great march on to Washington. A couple of days ago one of the captains of the second California regiment marched gayly into the tent, and was received with open arms. This individual was prominently identified with the strike at Sacramento, and is such a hero in the eyes of his comrades that it is possible in the next few days he may be commissioned generalissimo.

WILL FIGHT BACK.

Discretionary Poolmen to Go to Law.

PITTSBURG, October 26.—The discretionary pool managers, tired of assaults upon their credit and character, have determined to do some fighting.

It has been pretty well established that there is no law in this State under which they can be attacked unless they default, and probably not then.

Manager Dudgeon of the Traders' Syndicate and Manager Devlin of the American Syndicate, both incorporated in West Virginia, but with headquarters at Chicago, have combined forces.

They will demand the appointment of a committee by the Chamber of Commerce to go to Chicago and examine the operations of the syndicates, the latter paying all expenses.

They claim they will show that their operations are legitimate, and then they will take legal action against all persons who have criticised them and thereby caused the recent run.

A REPRIEVE.

Cleveland Grants a Respite to Thomas St. Clair.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The President has granted further respite until November 23d next to Thomas St. Clair, convicted in California of murder on the high seas.

He was sentenced to be hanged with Herman Sparf and Hans Hanson, October 26, 1893, but an appeal having been taken to the United States Supreme Court by Sparf and Hanson, a respite is granted St. Clair pending action upon the appeal.

NEW PLANS.

Industrials Will Not Go to San Jose.

Discontent Is Being Shown in the Ranks.

Marshal Smith Has Been Located in an Omaha Jail.

The Industrial march to San Jose has been given up and the Garden City breathes free again. Tomorrow the soldiers will return to Oakland.

There are a couple of reasons advanced for the failure of the crusaders to follow their original intention. One is that despite their assertions, the leaders were not particularly pleased at their reception, the other is that having received an invitation from the Populists to take part in the jollification Monday evening they have decided to accept it. This latter assertion is not denied by the leaders.

Something of moment is in the air, though. Wednesday "General" Kelley said he would make Rome howl within two weeks. Further than that he refused to commit himself. There is considerable talk that the army is not such a success as it is cracked up to be, and that Kelley is studying some way to get out of the business.

Information has been received at headquarters that General-Doctor-Marshal Smith, who led the second regiment of Industrials out of Oakland last May, is serving a nine months' term in jail at Omaha. It seems the part he took in last year's demolition made him amenable to the law, so he was arrested and placed in durance vile. Tonight Mrs. "General" Smith and Kelley will go to Alvarado, the terminal point of the present expedition, and deliver addresses on the causes of the present discontent.

It has leaked out that during the week following Kelley's injury at the hands of Officer Scanlan, and while his friends and sympathizers were informing the public that he was dangerously ill, he was out of bed all the time, and about the house, keeping himself secluded from public view.

On the following Tuesday morning he was able to be about.

The number of men in camp is about seventy-five. This number is constantly maintained, as the visitors are regularly going and coming.

MAKING MILLIONS.

Discretionary Pools in Full Blast in Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 25.—The raid on the discretionary pools at Pittsburg has started inquiries in this city, and investigation reveals the existence in Chicago of a large number of such concerns, which are doing a rushing business.

Indeed, Chicago harbors a perfect nest of them and it is said that they have taken in $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 during the year.

There are fifteen or twenty concerns located in the back offices of the buildings of the Board of Trade quarter, running what they call "speculative pools."

Many, it is said, have been immensely successful.

TO LIVE IN OAKLAND.

Gracie Plaisted Has Purchased the Hart Place.

Gracie Plaisted Fowler, wife of Frank L. Fowler, has purchased the Hart residence on the southwest corner of Twelfth and Market streets.

Mrs. Fowler is the prima donna at the Tivoli in San Francisco.

The marriage took place recently at Claremont.

A SMALLPOX SCARE.

Rush to Get Vaccinated at Washington.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The health authorities are using the greatest endeavors to prevent an epidemic of smallpox.

Its prevalence has caused considerable alarm, and it is estimated that over 0,000 people were vaccinated today.

An agent of the health department visited the Interior department and at his request Secretary Smith issued an order requiring all employees to be vaccinated.

The force at the department was in a panic today, owing to the fact that three smallpox victims are employed in the Interior department.

POORLY PATRONIZED.

Some of the Night Schools Will Be Closed.

The fate of the night schools at the Prescott, the Franklin, the Central and the Garfield schools will be determined next Monday or Tuesday by Superintendent McClymonds.

In accordance with the instructions of the board, Mr. McClymonds has been making an inquiry into the attendance at the several night classes, with authority to discontinue the same in the event that each class, during the present month, has not had an average attendance of fifteen pupils each night.

It is now assured that the drawing-class at the Central night school will be discontinued, because some evenings it attracts only two or three scholars and others none at all.

A DEATH WATCH

St. Clair's Day of Execution Draws Near.

He Will Be Strung Up in the Garden City.

The Fatal Warrant Is to Be Returned November 2d.

SAN JOSE, Cal., October 25.—United States Marshal Baldwin arrived here today to arrange for the execution of Thomas St. Clair, one of the three condemned murderers belonging to the mutinous crew of the American bark Hesper.

St. Clair will be executed in the County Jail here November 2d.

Sparf and Hanson, his accomplices in the murder of the Hesper's mate, Fitzgerald, have also been sentenced to death, but having appeals pending in the United States Supreme Court.

The death watch was placed over St. Clair this morning.

Baldwin says that although St. Clair is an United States prisoner, the provisions of the State law regarding executions will be strictly followed and only the necessary legal witnesses and attendants will be admitted.

The Marshal says reporters will be excluded.

A Panorama of America!

If it were possible to rise to an altitude sufficiently high to permit an observer to view through a telescope the whole of North America at one time, what a wondrous spectable would meet his gaze. Beautiful as it might appear, yet the vision would not be half so satisfactory as that which is afforded by the Great Pictographic Portfolio,

Glimpses of America

Which THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE is now distributing among its subscribers. It is a grand procession ofscenic wonderlands pictorially presented in a realism that is bewilderingly charming. By means of this most exquisite of all art works, the reader is carried in his easy rocking-chair to

All the Picturesque Regions of Our Country,

From sunny lands where zephyrs are redolent with the breath of orange blooms to regions where frosted peaks catch the gleams from Ithuriel's spears and bathe glacial rivers in a light that rises from behind the polar throne. By its magic pages we are taken across the great plains into the heart of the mighty Rockies, and set down amid the witchery of chaotic nature. Thence to the Yosemite, and the wondrous Northwest to Alaska's icy climes. Back again over mountainous ways to Yellowstone Park, then on by Minnehaha's laughing waters to Superior's pictured shores, by Niagara's raging flood to the deep forests, mountains, rivers and gorges of Canada and the Northwest.

Thence into the smoky and BlueRidge ranges, byfamous battle-fields, the Natural Bridge, through the Dismal Smamp and whitened cotton fields into the lands of perennial summer. And while giving pictures of surprising beauty, Glimpses of America also

OPPOSITION.

Conservatives Insist on the Old Ritual.

No Changes Can Be Made for a Year Anyhow.

The Remarks of the Rabbis Are Resented by Many.

The question of reform in the service of the First Hebrew Congregation will not be effected as rapidly as the more advanced members of the society would like, if indeed it is not deferred indefinitely.

It has just been announced that, at the last meeting of the congregation, which was held a few days ago, a resolution was adopted which insisted that no further change should be made in the ritual or the services of the synagogue for a year, without the consent of the congregation.

This resolution, it is claimed, was suggested by the fact that several changes have recently been made in the services, and, it is alleged, without being discussed at a meeting of the society.

The discourse of Rabbi Friedlander, last Sunday night, on "Progress," therefore, in which there were suggestions of reform, is considered strange by some members of the society in the light of the resolution referred to. They claim they cannot understand why the rabbi should have introduced the subject, unless he had not been informed of the adoption of the resolution.

These same members say that the presence of Rabbi Voorsanger on the same occasion was unexpected and that he had no right to speak as he did with reference to methods of worship, which, while they may be satisfactory to him and the people of his synagogue, will never be accepted by a large number of the older members of the First Hebrew Congregation of this city.

It has added another feature to its equipment and that is a series of three horse teams with beautiful decorated wagons with which it delivers consignments on the arrival of every boat. The People's Express, among its many advantages, offers a perfect system of checking trunks to and from one's home to the depots, which is a great convenience to those going away from or returning to Oakland.

FRIDAY ..... OCTOBER 26 1894

EVERY name on the Republican county ticket ought to receive the full vote of the Republican party.

"THE Great Undecided" is what the Calaveras Prospect calls Caminetti, and the nickname is apropos, for he declined the nomination for Congress three times, and it is really unsettled whether he or Mrs. Caminetti accepted it when offered him the fourth time.

THERE is a split in the Populist ranks in Los Angeles on local issues, and the more conservative element has indorsed ex-Mayor Workman, the Democratic nominee for Mayor. Workman is one of the old timers, and made a good Mayor when in that office many years ago.

THIS is pre-eminently a Republican year in all the Eastern States in which elections have so far been held. Some States that have been Democratic for many years have forsworn their allegiance to the party of "perfidy and dishonor" this year, and given their adhesion to the Republican party. This is to be a Republican year also in California, or all the signs are misleading and all the prophets are false. Alameda county must be in line in the procession. Nothing will be satisfactory excepting that she be at her proper station at the head of the Republican column.

LET no one be deluded by the "independent" candidate in this election. The "independent" candidate relies upon Republican votes for his success. Has any one noticed any Democrat set up as an "independent" candidate for any office in the gift of the county? The Democrats, or such of them as have not gone after other false gods in the Populist camp, are quiet and solid. They are relying upon the "independent" candidate to wean votes away from the Republican ticket. It ought to be remembered, and the sober second thought will teach the truth of the assertion to every Republican, that every Republican vote cast for an "independent" candidate in the coming election is virtually a vote for a Democrat. It is not the intention of any Republican, we are sure, to cast his vote that way for that purpose, but if he does that will surely be the effect of it.

Inauguration of Populism.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Yes, my darling daughter:
But whatever you may do,
Don't go near the water."

The above doggerel is typical of the attitude of the Populists towards their own propositions for the advancement of society. They propose Government acquisition of railroads, telegraphs, water works, mines and other so-called natural monopolies, and in the same breath oppose the issuance of bonds and the payment of interest. Want of sense or sincerity is evidenced by such suggestions, unless a more sinister design is to be sprung upon society, in that it may be contemplated to confiscate the title and interests now enjoyed by the present owners of property. The latter alternative is the only plan which could be adopted if such properties were to be acquired by the Government without issuing bonds in payment. So unjust and revolutionary a course must meet with the reprobation of all right-thinking people and consolidate the conservative members of society in opposing and discountenancing so dangerous a doctrine. A party which seeks to draw to its ranks the discontented and disorderly members of society, which applaud all violations of law and order and gives encouragement to the idle and the incompetent may well adopt as its policy an attack on thrift and industry. The strong common sense of the people of the country cannot be blinded by any party whose leaders are cranks and disappointed aspirants for office and whose want of principles are sought to be covered by contradictory appeals to every prejudice and whim of the visionary and the vicious.

Wrong Again.

The Napa Journal has a penchant for making itself ridiculous. It pronounced the statement made by THE TRIBUNE that tin plate mills were closing their doors, under the free-trade heresy of the Democratic party, "a lie!" We call attention of the "unmannerly" editor to the following from the Iron Age of September 6, 1894.

"The initial effects of the new tin plate tariff are shown in the closing down of all the smaller tin plate "dipping" works in this vicinity, a proceeding which will, doubtless, generally be followed by these establishments in other quarters. The ground seems to have been completely cut from under the feet of these and similarly placed establishments, unless, indeed, the price of domestic black sheets is very materially reduced; as, under the revised tariff, they cannot afford to buy the imported article and dip it, so as to sell their product in competition with the foreign tin plates imported under the new duty of 1.2 cents per pound. The only other way of escape for the American dipper making the cheaper grades of plates would be if the Welsh manufacturers plucked up courage to raise their prices for the finished plates sufficiently high to approximate the possible prices at which American black plates can be profitably coated and sold here. It seems hardly likely, however, that our Welsh competitors would pursue so shortsighted a course in respect to their own interests after all they have suffered from the recent restriction of American orders."

The Iron Age is undoubtedly authority upon all matters of the iron industry.

Voters Stampeding for Estee.

The Sacramento Bee did not favor the nomination nor has it said or done anything to help the election of M. M. Estee to the office of Governor, but it has the courage of its convictions, and does not hesitate to express them, even though these convictions are adverse to the position it has heretofore assumed. This is the way the honest Bee expresses itself on the situation now: "Democratic organs appear to be angry because voters are going in blocks to Estee, instead of in Indian file. The fact makes them howl, not the mere method of its statement."

The Bee is not alone in its observation of the popular drift. For some time past the stampede has been in full force in the southern counties, and late arrivals from that part of the State report the greatest enthusiasm for Estee and the Republican ticket. The stampede has been started throughout the northern and central parts of the State in the same way, only it has not yet reached the same proportions, perhaps, as it has south of the Tehachapi range. But "it will get there," all the same, before election day. Estee's canvass of the State has been one of popular education. He has educated the masses into a knowledge of the fact that there is something greater, deeper and more important involved in this campaign than mere "local issues," and his speeches have been so clear, so fair and so convincing that the voters everywhere have ruminated over what he has said, discussed among themselves every point he has advanced, pro and con, and been forced to admit the force and truthfulness of his arguments. He has not avoided "local issues" by any means; nor has any other Republican speaker in this campaign avoided them; but they have been elucidated by the incontrovertible evidence of facts and figures, unencumbered by delusive sophistry or misleading assumptions.

Then again, Estee and his supporters in the field have conducted a clean, impersonal campaign. Efforts have been made by the enemy, it is true, to drag personalities into the contest; and mud-slinging and prevarication and scurrilous publication have been employed to incite Republicans to personal and denunciatory warfare. But all of these have been unavailing. The keynote of the Republican campaign has been—arguments, not abuse; issues, not individuals; measures, not men; principles, not personalities. It is having a telling effect. The wisdom of this method of conducting the campaign is being established by "the blocks of voters," which are, as the Sacramento Bee says, "going to Estee."

THE Stockton Mail rejects the proposition made by the Sacramento Record-Union that the indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railroad Company to the Federal Government on the second mortgage bonds, amounting to $70,000,000, and to the holders of the first mortgage bonds, which amounts to $15,000,000, be adjusted by the methods "approved by business experience and commercial practice," when the debtor is unable to pay his debts. The Mail holds that an adjustment on such a basis would be against good public policy. After recounting at length the manner in which the Federal Government lent its credit and gave the public lands to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, the Mail says:

We shall therefore urge upon the public the propriety of such effective measures as will induce the Government of the United States to foreclose its mortgage, discharge what remains of the first mortgage and guarantee to the industries of the Pacific coast a cheap outlet to the markets of the East. * * * The Pacific Railroads were built for the purpose of building up the industries and commerce of the Pacific States and Territories. What we have a right to demand is that Government ownership and Government operation of the road shall have in view the original purpose for which the aid was extended, viz., that of promoting the growth of population and wealth west of the Rocky Mountains.

THE New York Advertiser of the 19th inst. has the following bit of personal gossip which is of local interest:

It is said that the Rev. Rr. Francis Horton of Providence, R. I., is to succeed the Rev. Dr. Bartlett as pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of Washington.

Dr. Horton left the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of this city to take charge of the Congregational Church at Providence, R. I. If what the Advertiser says is true, the change he now contemplates making will bring him again into the Presbyterian fold. It is becoming a very common thing nowadays for a Presbyterian minister to assume the pastorate of a Congregational church and vice versa, although in doctrinal belief and church government there is a marked difference between the two denominations.

THE Fresno Republican says that the Populist parade in that city last Monday night, on the occasion of the visit of J. V. Webster, the Populist nominee for Governor, outdid the Democratic parade on the occasion of the visit of Budd. But the Republican adds that wagon loads of hay and women were liberally dispersed through the line, and neither represent voters, while votes only count.

AFTER experiencing eighteen months of bad times, loss of employment and reduced wages, as the result of the ruinous rule of a Democratic National Administration, aided by a Democratic Congress, what workingman can go to the polls at the coming election and conscientiously vote the Democratic ticket?

Free Library Trustees.

The Free Library Trustees held a special meeting yesterday. The president and secretary were authorized to sign a lease with Colman Bros. for the stores at 64 and 66 San Pablo avenue, to be occupied by the central reading room. It was also decided to secure bids for shingling the library building.

MEN TO VOTE FOR.

H. M. COLLINS,

Republican Nominee from the Forty-Ninth Assembly District.

The Republican nominee for Assemblyman from the Forty-ninth Assembly District is H. M. Collins, a long-time resident and merchant of the First ward and a former member of the city government.

Mr. Collins is a New Yorker by birth. He came to California when he was 20 years of age. From 1853 to 1861 he engaged in mining in El Dorado county. He then went into a grocery house in Placerville and was in the business for sixteen years.

During his residence in Placerville Mr. Collins served in the Town Council for two years—during 1871 and 1872—and as such was an efficient representative.

In 1877 the firm dissolved and Mr. Collins came to Oakland to live. He then bought the store where he now conducts his business, at West Oakland.

In 1889 he was elected Councilman from the First ward, as a member of the local legislative body which put in operation our present system of local government, and was a member of that body for two years. The last year of his term Mr. Collins was President of the Council and for a term ex-officio acting Mayor. He was an earnest, able and conscientious Councilman and gave the city good and faithful service.

Mr. Collins is a good speaker, having a ready flow of language, is skilled in debate and quite at home in legislative work. He is, consequently, well qualified to ably represent the district. He is an ardent Republican and entitled to the full measure of the party vote. Mr. Collins ought to be elected by the voters of the Forty-ninth Assembly district by a handsome majority. A vote for him means a vote for George C. Perkins for United States Senator.

CLINTON G. DODGE,

Republican Nominee from the Fifty-First Assembly District.

The Legislative ticket is of greater importance than usual this year. It underlies a United States Senatorship and in that way has a direct bearing upon the affairs of the nation. Practically, therefore, Alameda county voters are expressing their choice for United States Senator when they are voting for a member of the State Legislature.

The Republican Legislative conventions have selected men well worthy of the honor and well qualified to perform the duties of legislators in the nominations they have made for State legislative representatives.

Clinton G. Dodge is the Republican nominee from the Fifty-first Assembly district. He has already served one term, and that in such an able and commendable way that he was fully entitled to the nomination for a second term, and his constituents would be lacking in a due appreciation of true merit if he were not re-elected with a much greater majority than he received at his first election.

Mr. Dodge was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1857. He received his early education in the common schools of that city. He removed to California in 1877, and for some time lived in Santa Cruz county. In 1880 and 1881 he was employed in Bradstreet's Commercial Agency in San Francisco, but being in poor health he came to Oakland to live. After his recovery he accepted the position of brakeman in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company. He followed this occupation for four years, but being of an ambitious and studious turn of mind he took up the study of the law during his leisure hours. He prosecuted his studies so satisfactorily that in 1885, while yet a brakeman, he passed a successful examination before the Supreme Court and was admitted to practice. The same year he abandoned railroading and took up the active duties of his profession.

Two years ago Mr. Dodge was elected to the Assembly by the Republicans of the Fifty-first district. He made a splendid record in the Legislature. He was a member of the more important committees, among them the Judiciary committee. His views were courted by his colleagues and his advice was sought on every important measure that came before the Assembly. A member of that stamp reflects credit upon his district, and an acknowledgment of it should be emphasized at the polls. If he is elected Mr. Dodge will be a candidate for the Speakership of the House.

BITS OF GOSSIP.

Joseph T. Field of Red Bank, N. J., is just 102 years of age. Before 1856 he was an Old Line Whig, and since then he has voted, without miss, the straight Republican ticket. He has three children, born since he was 72, and he is mentally as bright as the youngest.

Senator Peffer's son, who has been an assistant doorkeeper of the Senate since his pa took office, has been dropped from the rolls. Although a Populist, the bewhiskered Senator has demonstrated that he is something of a papulist. He succeeded in getting Government places for three of his boys. If his party ever gets into power Peffer may be able to place his whole family at the public crib.

Sir Holliday Macartney, although an Englishman, is secretary of the Chinese Legation in London.

Every one of England's royal princes wears a fac simile of his bride's wedding ring.

The Marquis de Villobal, who came to the Columbian Exposition with his brother, the Duke de Veragua, both guests of the nation as descendants of Columbus, is again in this country. Neither the Marquis nor any of his family is rich, and it is hinted that his mission is to revive the American subscription which was hurriedly begun and suddenly collapsed in Chicago last year.

William Barnes, a clerk in the Treasury Department, Washington, died October 16th. He entered the Government service during the last year of Buchanan's Administration, and his special duty was to handle and store treasury notes. Without doubt more money passed through his hands actually than was ever handled by any other man that ever lived. An idea of the amount of money which he has had in his temporary possession may be gleaned from the fact that one day a few years ago he lifted and stored in the vaults no less than $60,000,000.

Nicholas Alexandrovitch, the Czarewitch of Russia, unlike his imperial father, is short and delicate looking. He is a student rather than a warrior.

Now that Dr. Holmes is dead, Gladstone is the sole survivor of that remarkable group of men born in 1808. The list includes besides the two named, Lincoln, Darwin and Tennyson.

John W. Crisfield of Princess Anne, Md., is one of the oldest practicing lawyers in the United States. He sometimes appears before his son. Judge Henry Page, who dropped the paternal name many years ago. Mr. Crisfield has lived to see the odd little amphibious town that he founded and named for himself about thirty years ago grown into the most important place on the eastern shore of the Chesapeake.

How Could I Know?

So many flowers bloomed in that noonday sun,
How could I know
That when I trod on one
And crushed its golden glow,
Now wandering in dim lowlands, grown and sere,
The tiniest faded blossom would seem dear?
How could I know?

There were so many days the sunshine kissed,
How could I know,
When one I gaily missed
And laughing, let it go
That in the long watches of some solemn night,
Dawn's dullest ray I should call heavenly bright?
How could I know?

So many dear ones in those happy years!
How could I know
That when I mocked their tears
And left them loving so,
In lonely barren after-time I'd pray
For weakest touch of hands I flung away!
How could I know?

An Application to Defay the Extension

After the special meeting of the Council last evening a meeting of the Street Committee was held to hear a request from Messrs Kittredge and Smith, representing the California Door and Sash Factory at West Oakland, that the proposed opening of Fourteenth street, west of Wood street to the water front, be postponed Proceedings have been commenced by the Council for the opening of the street right through to the water front, which involves the condemnation of so much of the property on the line of the street extension as has not already been dedicated to public uses. That part of the extension of Fourteenth street, lying between Wood and Pine streets, is now occupied as a lumber yard by the door and sash factory, and Messrs Kittredge and Smith desired to continue to use it as such until the roadway was actually needed and the stagnant pool further west was filled in They supposed that the street was included in their property, as their deed so described it, but they were willing to waive that and file a disclaimer, in which they would consent to surrender the possession whenever the street was actually needed.

Mr Barstow said there was a precedent for the acceptance of such a disclaimer, in the disclaimer which had been filed some years ago by Kirkham, Bacon and Keyes, to Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Fallon streets, east of Oak, and he was disposed to favor the proposition.

Towle thought that to protect the city's interests in other parts of the proposed extension, it would be necessary to push the proceeding which had been already started to a conclusion, no matter whether the disclaimers were filed or not Anyhow, the abstract of title which the Council had procured, showed that the property to which Messrs Kittredge and Smith proposed filing a disclaimer, was already city property, the street having been at some time in the past dedicated to the public It was decided, however, that the Council should visit the premises next Tuesday afternoon and inspect it.

The committee then rose

Evangelist Martin Well Entertains His Audiences.

Large audiences are packing Hamilton Hall from night to night to hear Rev Dr. Martin, who is conducting a revival for Dr. Sweeney's congregation His sermon Wednesday night "Zeal," while replete with fact and philosophy, was mirth-provoking in the extreme. In fact the audience was kept in a state of laughter almost from start to finish. Aside from the plain and scriptural presentation of gospel truths Dr. Martin, possessing such rare powers of elocution and facial expression, affords his audience a rich entertainment—in, in fact, a popular amusement The audiences that flock to hear him seem to represent all "the faiths" and "no faiths" of the city.

A SOUND MIND,

Gov. Stonemah Knew "a Thing or Two."

BusinessSenseTaughtHimEarly in His Life.

How He Bulit Up a Competency During the Mining Days.

Kate Field, in her Washington, narrates some interesting reminiscences of the late Governor Stoneman. When he was a young lieutenant he crossed the continent with General Kearny and was encamped for a time near San Gabriel Mission, in charge of a squadron of cavalry watching some of Fremont's volunteers, who were camped at the Mission. It was there he saw and coveted the ownership of the land which, thirty years ago, became his home and on which he had hoped to live and die. But the latter part of the dream of his young manhood was dispelled by the skeleton which stalked into the family closet, estranging him from wife and home and embittering his last days.

When the gold excitement broke out in California Stoneman's salary was $83 33 per month. He saw bad carriers earning $100 a month and keep carpenters and blacksmiths earning $16 per day, and the prices of the necessaries of life rise like the mercury in the thermometer on a hot day.

The young lieutenant with his meager salary, was threatened with starvation. It was a serious question with him. He solved it by applying to headquarters for six month's leave of absence, as he said "in order that I may be able to go to work and earn my living, and not be obliged to either beg, borrow or steal!"

An application like that had to be respected. It was promptly granted and young Stoneman turned horsetrader, buying stock cheap in the southern counties, driving them up to the mines and selling them at fancy prices to the miners. By the time the leave of absence expired, Stoneman had placed himself beyond the reach of want.

CUTTING HIS BUSINESS TEETH

Stoneman was keen enough at trade. He had reason to be so. He cut his business teeth early in life. When a boy he tried his hand at selling melons raised on his father's farm. He took some with him to the market town on "muster day"—a day set for military training in the rural districts of his native State—and sold them at prices ranging from 1 cent upward. All except one large melon was disposed of. For this he asked 25 cents. A purchaser turned up for this, and offered him a silver dollar, demanding change in return. To young Stoneman, it looked amazingly large, but he made the change and the trade. Here was the first dollar piece he had ever earned. He was as proud of it as a small child is of a new toy. He showed it to his father's hired man. Alas, for human faith and Stoneman's youthful joy! The silver was demonstrated to him to be nothing but lead, and, consequently, worthless. He was so disgusted that he threw the counterfeit into a neighboring lake. The experience was a bitter one to the boy, but it sharpened his wits and taught him a lesson he never forgot.

All through life Stoneman showed how he had profited by the lesson. When he bought his San Gabriel ranch, which he had coveted for over thirty years, he had nothing to pay for it but the pay of a retired cavalry colonel. A mortgage on the property had been foreclosed by ex-Governor Downey, and it was transferred to Stoneman on a renewed mortgage, as Downey had more faith in him than in the man he had been compelled to close out.

Southern California was then very little known. Only a small population of whites resided there. A comparatively small acreage was under cultivation in San Gabriel valley. Short, Rose, Kewen and Stoneman were among its pioneer wine and fruit growers.

Downey, as a bank president, thought he had made a good trade. Stoneman, as the buyer, knew that he had made a good one. While other men were short of farm laborers, he had plenty at command, because he had foreseen the necessity of securing laborers at the right season, and he furnished comfortable homes for his men and their families on the place, setting as do small tracts of land for them to cultivate for their own use.

While other wine growers were selling their raw vintages for a bagatelle Stoneman cellared his for a better market. It increased in value faster than the interest accumulated on the money which he had to borrow to keep the ranch going. In a few years he paid for the ranch and all the improvements which he put upon it out of its own earnings. The lead dollar experience of his boyhood had made a keen, shrewd business manager of him.

GEORGE ELLIOTT'S FUNERAL

Many Mourners at the Impressive Services.

The funeral of the late George Elliott, the Southern Pacific conductor who was accidentally killed near Rodeo last Monday night, took place yesterday at 2 o'clock. The services were held in Albert Brown's undertaking parlors and attracted a large number of fellow railroad friends of the deceased as also a number of sympathetic friends. Rev. L. T. Bush of the First Baptist Church officiated.

The music was rendered by Professor and Mrs. Annie Pollitt, the selections being "Flee as a Bird," "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," the first and last pieces being sung by request.

Among the mourners were the wife, the father and mother of the deceased from Gonzales, and Mr. Bently, a brother of Mrs. Elliott, from Fresno. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, especially those of El Capitan Division, No. 115, Order of Railway Conductors, of which the deceased was a member.

The suit of Carl Bygum against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to recover $50,100 damages for the death of his son, Christian C. Bygum, is on trial before Judge Ellsworth and a jury in the Superior Court today.

Bygum's son was run over and killed by a train while crossing the track at University avenue, West Berkeley, on November 4, 1888. The task of securing a jury favorable to both sides was a very difficult one and nearly the entire morning was consumed in the work.

The case is attracting considerable interest and the courtroom was crowded with people anxious to hear the testimony.

QUAINT ANTICS.

Initiates Run for the Skull and Keys.

Humorous Exercises Held Upon the Campus.

A Large Crowd Was Present and Enjoyed the Sport.

The "running" of initiates for the Skull and Keys, the swell secret society of the college, took place on the campus of the University grounds yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance to witness the students perform all sorts of ridiculous acts.

Preliminary "running" had been going on all day to the consternation of the people in the library and the recitation rooms. The main part, however, came off in the afternoon. The fun was started by two young men coming from the gymnasium to the football field, one carrying an advertising sandwich, labelled, "U. C.—Reliance Football Game," and the other bearing a large bell. They paraded up and down before the grand stand, which was filled with people.

More students then appeared, one clad in his dress suit and who declaimed on the good the University was doing and how they had got the great Gill. One of his friends was attired as Uncle Sam, and one in his oldest clothes. Another was a policeman, and others with rakes and hoes cleaned the gridiron.

The "policeman" chased a small boy off the field, scaring him nearly to death and dropping him over the fence when caught. Another played a hand organ and another carried a sack of beans and sold fruit tablets.

Two young men were compelled to act as valets to two students who made a morning call on a young lady. They carried their masters' umbrellas and valises, and at the house dusted their shoes, turned down their trousers and brushed their clothes. On entering the dwelling they were only permitted to go into the hall and were not allowed to recognize the young lady. They had to follow their masters around, and perform all the acts of servants.

The following were the initiates: Messrs. Chamberlain, Baldwin, Eckert, Brown, Corbett, Holmes, Hutchins, Blake, Graham.

AGAINST THE RAILROAD.

Damages Awarded for Refusing to Give Stopover Privileges.

Another judgment has been entered against the Southern Pacific Company for refusing stopover privileges. Judge Seawell of San Francisco has rendered judgments in favor of the plaintiff for $200 in the suit of L. S. Robinson against the Southern Pacific Company. The case was practically the same nature as the one won by Dr. W. H. Robinson in the Supreme Court. The plaintiff purchased a ticket in San Francisco for Alameda. He stopped over in this city and then took the next train for Alameda. He was forced to pay a fare between Oakland and Alameda. The court holds that he had a right to stopover and should have been allowed to have made the whole journey without being forced to pay an additional fare. There are many other suits of a like character still pending.

The Best Teacher.

The Arabs say that the best teacher is Time That is true, especially when year after year enforces the same lesson. For more than thirty years ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have been in use in every part of the world, and the testimony is universal as to their value as an external remedy for pains of every kind in the back, chest and side. Some people have learned the lesson so well that they try to imitate them, and the result is a host of counterfeits, all pretending to be just as good as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, and unconscious that by this very statement they acknowledge that ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS hold the first place. Be sure and get the genuine.

A TILE LOOSE.

Record Obtained of Cleveland's Crank Caller.

He Was in an Insane Asylum in Germauy.

The Authorities Exported Him, for He Was an American.

NEW YORK, October 26.—Richard Goerdler, the man who wanted to interview President Cleveland and who attracted attention some time ago by challenging Emperor William to fight a duel, is a native of Lauinweider province, West Prussia. He emigrated to the United States about seven years ago and became a naturalized American citizen in Kentucky in due course of time.

In 1892 Goerdler was sent to Germany by Henry Villard, it is claimed, to act as agent of the Northern Pacific.

While occupying this position Goerdler organized a party of celebrated Germans who were invited to participate in the opening of the railroad referred to.

Some time after Goerdler's father died in Germany and the heirs got into a fight about the estate.

Richard Goerdler considered himself wronged by his brother, but the German courts decided against him, and he then began the fight against the courts, accusing them of conspiracy.

When the German Secretary of Justice decided against him Goerdler accused that official of being in the plot, and wound up by challenging the Emperor of Germany to fight a duel.

A special jury of medical men was called upon to pronounce on Goerdler's sanity.

They pronounced him hopelessly out of his mind and he was not guilty of the crime of Les Majeste and sent to an insane asylum, where his brother paid the expenses for a time.

But when the brother stopped paying the expense in the asylum the authorities informed the officials of the United States Legation of Goerdler being an American citizen and a care to the community and that they would let him go, and inquired whether there would be any objections on the part of the United States authorities, as represented by the Immigration Commissioners, to allow Goerdler to land in America if he was sent back to the United States.

In some manner, not explained, the whole matter was postponed and Richard Goerdler's brother resumed paying his expenses and continued so doing for a time.

But he stopped again and the question of returning Goerdler to the United States again came to the front, as the Germans decided they had no right to burden the community with him.

Eventually the State Department at Washington decided that Goerdler being an American citizen, could not be prevented from landing, and he was consequently sent back to this country, last year as a saloon passenger on board the steamer Havel, the expenses of the trip being partly paid by his brother and partly by the Prussian Government, the latter taking care to inform the officials of the United States Embassy as to Goerdler's movement, in order that he might be taken care of on his arrival here.

Before leaving Germany Goerdler threatened to return to that country and continue to wage his so-called war for justice.

Last week it was announced that Goerdler was flooding the public offices of Berlin with a pamphlet entitled "Fiat Justitia," in which he recited his experience in trying to obtain a legacy at Hamm, Westphalia.

Goerdler wanted the Emperor of Germany to fight him with pistols, claiming that he as an American citizen was also a monarch and the equal of the Kaiser.

Mail Carrier Wes on Laid up for Repairs.

William Weston, one of the mail-wagon drivers in connection with the postoffice, was seriously injured yesterday by being kicked by the horse he was driving. The animal backed and a companion of Weston's, who was on the seat of the vehicle at the time struck the horse with a stick. The animal resented by letting his heels fly, striking young Weston on the right limb below the knee. The shoe of the animal caused a fearful gash and the fracture of the bone. Weston is confined to his bed at Contractor Martin's home, Thirty-second and Chestnut streets.

Smart Expressmen

The Oakland expressmen, with the superior intelligence which prevails this side of the estuary, have succeeded in beating the famous Alameda license ordinance. The ordinance says that an expressman's license shall be $10 per annum, but by taking out three licenses he can run as many wagons as he desires. So a series of combinations have been formed, known as moving companies. As individual companies, each has taken three licenses out and the schemers are running several wagons with the license for three.

BRAVE.

Grand Coup for the Japs.

A Big Defeat for the Chinese.

Outposts Stormed and Brilliant Charges Made.

The Pigtails Driven in Confusion From the Field.

Moukden Will Be the Scene of the Next Big Battle.

YOKOHAMA, October 26.—Latest dispatches from Yalu river show that in the battle fought yesterday between the Chinese and Japanese 3500 Chinese troops of all arms were utterly routed.

THE TALE OF THE CONFLICT.

CHEMULPO, October 26.—Dispatches from Wi Ju dated midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and the Japanese across the Yalu river.

General Nodzu, Japanese chief of staff, it appears, succeeded in getting the main body of the Japanese army across the Yalu river, without mishap, before daylight Thursday.

Then Colonel Sato was sent forward at the head of a flying column on a reconnoitering expedition, and he discovered the enemy occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang, on the right bank of the Yalu river.

Though he had no artillery at his disposal, Colonel Sato immediately commenced the attack upon the Chinese, and a fierce fight followed.

The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly.

The attack began at 10 o'clock in the morning and lasted until night, when the Chinese began wavering, broke and eventually retired in great disorder, falling back upon Kuliencheas.

The troops commanded by Colonel Sato, after the Chinese had retired, set to work upon the demolishment of the fortifications of Fushang.

Inside of the fortifications they found 200 Chinese dead.

The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was a Chinese officer, who stated that the position was held by eighteen battalions of Chinese troops.

The Japanese escorting the prisoners then marched in the direction of General Nodzu's main body with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is not known.

The Japanese lost five officers and ninety men killed and wounded.

Later dispatches said the Chinese outposts were falling back upon Kuliencheas, where it is expected the only determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are complete in every detail for inflicting what he hopes will turn out to be a crushing blow upon the Chinese.

WELL VERSED IN STRATEGY.

Several columns of the Japanese troops are acting in concert after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at Ping Yang, and it is expected they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position.

If the Japanese field marshal's plans are carried out in the manner indicated in dispatches from the front, it is probable the network of the invaders will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese attack to be delivered at dawn Sunday.

But if the Japanese columns succeed in occupying the position assigned them previous to midnight Saturday it is believed that an attack will be delivered at the earliest possible moment.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported strength of the Chinese position at Kuliencheas.

It is reported that the Japanese batteries at Kalu and Kulien have been increased from three to eleven; but on the other hand, rumor says it is extremely doubtful whether all these batteries are fully armed.

The esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops are excellent, and it is said to be the universal ambition to capture Moukden before the birthday of the Emperor of Japan, November 3d.

Rebels Routed.

TANGIER, October 26.—It is announced that Muley Amin, ordered by the Sultan to go to Melilla with a force of 700 infantry, 700 cavalry and four guns to delimit the Spanish and Moorish frontier, which hitherto has been prevented by the Riff tribesmen, has inflicted a crushing defeat upon rebellious Haiahinas.

AN ORATOR MOBBED.

Campaigning Is Not All Easy Sailing in the East.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 26.—The statement is credited of Milton Turner, on the highest authority that he had received a telegram from the Governor of Missouri asking if he wants protection from Missouri against mob violence and suggesting that he ask Governor Mathews of Indiana to to intercede in his behalf.

Turner, who was Minister to Liberia under Grant, attempted to deliver a Democratic speech in this city Wednesday night and was mobbed.

He says now he will probably address the colored people of this city again Saturday when more trouble may be expected.

MODERN GUY FAWKES.

Anarchists Want to Blow Up the French Parliament.

PARIS, October 26.—Le Matin states that information was recently received at the Prefecture of Police that three anarchists have resolved to come to Paris from Poissy, Lille and Lyons for the purpose of blowing up the Chamber of Deputies.

The Palais Bourbon is watched by police with redoubled vigilance, and the strictest surveillance is exercised over all suspected persons.

WESTERN WINGS

Advices Received From Honolulu and Samoa.

Royalists Again Talking About an Uprising.

Native Chiefs Still Under Arms in the South Seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 26.—The steamship Alameda arrived this morning from Sydney, Auckland, Apia and Honolulu bringing the following news advices from special correspondents of the Associated Press:

HONOLULU, October 18.—Rumors of a Royalist uprising have been very scarce for the last few months, but now that the first election of the new Republic draws near, these reports have again been circulated.

This time election day, October 29th, has been chosen as the date of an attempt to restore the ex-Queen, but very little stock is taken in the tale.

Nominations for Senators and Representatives have been made.

Out of the twelve chosen for this island (Oahu), only two are natives, and this has caused some criticism among the native annexationists.

Every nominee has been pledged to the support of the annexation plank in the platform to the exclusion of everything else.

Sanford Fleming, an Englishman, who has been in Honolulu for some time in the interests of the British Cable Company, leaves on the steamer today.

He has asked the Government to cede Necker island, which was the cause of so much comment a few months ago, to England, claiming that if this is done the cable project will be at once carried through, and Necker island will be a half-way house between Victoria and Australia, with a branch line to Honolulu.

He has also asked for an exclusive cable right on Hawaiian territory.

The latter proposition has not met with the approval of the Hawaiian Government and will probably not be acceded to.

The former grant would probably be made under certain conditions.

At present, no definite arrangement has been concluded.

SAMOAN NEWS.

APIA, Samoa, October 10.—There have been no recent conflicts between rival native bands.

All the warriors are still under arms, however, and the people here are prepared for an outbreak to occur at any time.

The Samoan Land Commission, which had prepared to hold sittings in the District of Atua to dispose of the cases there, were notified by the heads of the rebel party that they would not be allowed to do so.

The letter sent was a most important one.

It is expected the commission will now proceed to Atua on one of the warships.

A movement has been secretly inaugurated here to circulate a petition to the three treaty powers, urging the removal of President Schmidt, with whose administration there is considerable dissatisfaction.

Panic in a Church.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 26.—During the consecration of a church in Trokh, near Ostrovianshy, a lamp was upset. A cry of "fire" was raised and a panic followed. In the rush for the doors, two women and three children were trampled to death. Twenty-seven people were seriously injured.

Object to Education.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The War Department has referred to General McCook, commanding the Department of the Colorado, the complaint of the Indian Bureau that the Moquis Indians of Arizona threatens to outbreak as a result of the attempt of the agent to place their children in school. As the Moquis number but 600 and are not warlike not much importance is attached to their threats.

A Delay.

Another delay has taken place in the proposed moving of the Central Free Reading Room to 64 and 66 San Pablo avenue. The transfer was to have been made tomorrow, but cannot take place till Monday next.

The "Chicago" in Portugal.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The United States steamer Chicago has arrived at Lisbon.

THE HAYWARDS RALLY

County Candidates Are Welcomed With Open Arms.

The Republican county candidates were given a grand reception at Haywards last night. This was the first visit made by the candidates since the Republican Convention was held in the town.

The meeting was held in Native Sons' Hall. The hall had been very prettily decorated with flowers and flags.

A pretty feature of the meeting was the presentation to each speaker of a large bouquet.

Prior to the meeting there was an impromptu parade through the streets.

County Committeeman Hawes called the meeting to order and introduced H. E. Bruner, president of the Haywards Republican Club, as chairman of the evening. Mr. Bruner said that as there were a number of speakers present he would not take up the time of the audience in making a speech.

A ladies' quartet sang in a pleasing manner. The Campaign quartet was also present and made the usual hit.

A. L. Frick was then introduced as speaker of the evening. Mr. Frick made an able address and was frequently applauded.

After commenting upon the importance of this election to the people of this State and its effect upon the future of the Republican party he proceeded to examine the records of both parties in this State and fully demonstrated by official statistics that affairs have been more economically administered in this State under Republican administrations than under Democratic. He called attention to the fact that the Governor had no power to reduce State expenditures except by the exercise of the veto power, and arraigned Mr. Budd for making promises that he knew he could not fulfil. The speaker contrasted the Democrat's flippant oratory, impossible promises and undignified conduct in this campaign with the manly bearing and dignified utterances of Mr. Estee. Continuing he said:

"The worst kind of a falsehood is the truth but half told, and the most dangerous man is the demagogue who tells half the truth and conceals the other half for the purpose of self aggrandisement."

He accused Mr. Budd of doing this in his comparisons of the expense of running our State Prisons with the expense to those States that have the system of convict labor in the manufacture of articles, and the bringing of free labor into competition with convict labor.

"With reference to boosism in politics, he said: "I deny that the Convention that gave to the Republican ticket the name of F. W. Henshaw for Justice of the Supreme Court, was dominated by any boss or by any influence other than the honest effort of the respective delegations of independent men at Sacramento, to give to us a ticket, the election of which would insure an honest and economical government of affairs."

Calling attention to the fact that the country was prosperous and her people happy at the close of the Harrison Administration, he charged the business depression and the fact that 2,000,000 men in the nation are out of employment to the hostile character of the present administration to our industries and laborers. He then exhaustively dealt with the provisions of the Wilson bill, and called attention to its discriminations against the industries of California, and particularly to the wool, fruit, hop and sugar beet industries.

Continuing, he added: "The Republicans have nominated a ticket, State, county and Legislative, worthy of your respect and confidence, from which not one single name should be erased; a ticket composed of men the election of whom will insure an honest, fearless, efficient, and economical administration of public affairs in every department."

In closing, he predicted that the people of this State would "marshal themselves under the standard of the Republican party and with protection, reciprocity and the equal rights of all, inscribed upon their banner, march in solid phalanx to the polls on the 6th of November and cast their ballots for that exponent of true Americanism—the able statesman, the honest man, M. M. Estee, and the whole Republican ticket, State, county and Legislative."

Dr. Tisdale of Alameda now made a few remarks, and spoke particulary of his friend James B. Barber, whom he nominated for Tax Collector.

The county candidates were next introduced, and all made short speeches. George W. Frick was given an ovation when he appeared on the platform. Haywards is his old home, and the people cheered him in royal style.

The meeting then adjourned amid cheers.

A DUAL LIFE.

Trainrobber Abroad, Respected at Home.

A Quiet Little Town Stirred Up in Missouri.

One of Its Leading Citizens Proves to Be a Desperado.

NEELYVILLE, Mo., October 26.—When the people of this quiet little city read of the bold hold-up and express robbery at Aqua Creek they little thought the leader of the desperadoes was one of their most respected citizens.

Charles A. Morgan and his handsome young wife have been residents of Neelyville for the past two years.

Morgan would frequently be gone for a month or two at a time, but the people here thought nothing of it and no one suspected that he was other than a man of property who could afford to take little pleasure trips at his will.

The first connection between Morgan of Neelyville and Morganfield was suspected by Chief of Police Charles Flanagan when Morganfield was found with his leg broken near Cincinnati.

Mr. Flanagan at once took steps to confirm his suspicion.

The identification was complete when he received a photograph from the Chief of Police of Cincinnati of Morganfield as he lay on his couch at the city hospital.

Morgan left here nearly two months ago and not even his wife knew where he was, and had not heard from him since he left.

Mrs. Morgan is a lady in every particular and is much distressed at the accusations against her husband, saying that "Charley had too much sense to do such a thing."

Since Morgan has lived here he has made many friends, and the people can scarcely credit the statement that he could commit such a deed.

While they admit that Morgan and Morganfield are one and the same, they still think that there must be some grievous mistake and that he was not connected with the robbery.

Morgan, while at home was strictly temperate, paying his debts promptly, and it is believed has considerable property.

A RUMPUS RAISED.

Populist Orators Warring on the Streets.

There was strong evidence of anything but harmony among the members of the People's Party, this morning, in front of the entrance to the headquarters on Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth streets.

J. H. Fones, the street talker, and agitator Stetson, exchanged compliments. Fones characterizing Stetson as a traitor, and Stetson responding by calling Fones a coward and upstart, and a puffed up pretender who could murder more English language in a minute than a gatling gun could in a year.

Fones made little headway against Stetson when it was a case of tongue against tongue. He gradually drew away from his irate little opponent, and disappeared up the stairway leading to the headquarters.

Stetson followed, applying various epithets upon the retreating street orator, and threatening to punch his two eyes into one.

The belligerents attracted a large number of spectators, some of whom endeavored to make the fighters substitute fists for words, and they came very near being successful, too.

The Euskar Turns Up.

QUEENSTOWN, October 26.—The British steamer Euskar, from Philadelphia, October 4th, for London, for the safety of which some fears were felt, has been towed to this port with its shaft broken by the steamer McGarel from Norfolk.

The Ameer Is All Right.

CALCUTTA, October 26.—News has been received at Simla, dated October 20th, from Gaboul, that the Ameer of Afghanistan was attending to business as usual.

A Warehouse Destroyed.

CHICAGO, October 26.—One of the large warehouses of the William Deering Reaping Works was burned today. Loss, $100,000; insured.

KILLS DISEASE.

A Discovery of Great Value to Medicine.

Innoculation for Diphtheria and Croup.

Splendid Results So Far From Using the Serum.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The new treatment by innoculation for diphtheria and croup, as practiced in France, is the subject of a special report to the State Department by United States Consul C. W. Chancellor at Havre.

He says by that method of treatment only one out of four diphtheretic patients succumb, whereas the figure is double for other methods of treatment heretofore applied.

Consequently the Consul, who is a Baltimore physician of repute, says that it would seem very desirable that the anti-diphtheretic serum should be introduced and come into general use at the earliest period practicable in America, where many thousand children and numerous physicians, students and nurses die annually from diphtheria and croup.

The Consul gives in detail a history of the development of the treatment by D. Pasteur and his assistant, D. Roux, who have been experimenting with it for five years, keeping it secret until they had satisfied themselves of its efficiency and had subjected the animal (the horse) best adapted to transform diphtheretic poison into an anti-toxine.

A trial of the new treatment at one of the largest children's hospitals of Paris resulted in reducing the death rate from diphtheria from 51.70 per cent to 24.53 per cent.

In addition it is stated that children vaccinated with the serum were protected from the disease even while living in close contact with diphtheretic patients.

As the Pasteur Institute cannot meet the great demand for the serum, movements are on foot in different localities to establish auxiliary stations.

In slight cases one injection of the serum is sufficient, while the ordinary case yields to two.

NO WORK NOW.

A Cargo of Provisions for the Hungry Army.

Spontaneous Supply Provided by a Rancher.

The Industrials Are Getting Ready for Their Grand March.

The Industrials are assured of provisions for some time to come. Yesterday a Stockton rancher, named Weston, called at headquarters and offered to loan a schooner to the 'weelers and fill it with vegetables, consisting chiefly of potatoes and beans, if Kelley would send a crew to bring the craft down. Of course the offer was accepted, and yesterday afternoon three men were sent to the Slough City. They expect to arrive in Oak and tomorrow afternoon.

There is a dark and dismal uncertainty about the movements of the army in the country. One of the officers said this morning that the contingent of industrials will return to Oakland tomorrow morning, unless the leaders changed their plans again.

One by one the excited spirits who elected a new set of officers every other day in Carter's barn last spring, and finally settled away under the leadership of Admiral Smith, are returning to town to make ready for the great march on to Washington. A couple of days ago one of the captains of the second California regiment marched gayly into the tent, and was received with open arms. This individual was prominently identified with the strike at Sacramento, and is such a hero in the eyes of his comrades that it is possible in the next few days he may be commissioned generalissimo.

WILL FIGHT BACK.

Discretionary Poolmen to Go to Law.

PITTSBURG, October 26.—The discretionary pool managers, tired of assaults upon their credit and character, have determined to do some fighting.

It has been pretty well established that there is no law in this State under which they can be attacked unless they default, and probably not then.

Manager Dudgeon of the Traders' Syndicate and Manager Devlin of the American Syndicate, both incorporated in West Virginia, but with headquarters at Chicago, have combined forces.

They will demand the appointment of a committee by the Chamber of Commerce to go to Chicago and examine the operations of the syndicates, the latter paying all expenses.

They claim they will show that their operations are legitimate, and then they will take legal action against all persons who have criticised them and thereby caused the recent run.

A REPRIEVE.

Cleveland Grants a Respite to Thomas St. Clair.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The President has granted further respite until November 23d next to Thomas St. Clair, convicted in California of murder on the high seas.

He was sentenced to be hanged with Herman Sparf and Hans Hanson, October 26, 1893, but an appeal having been taken to the United States Supreme Court by Sparf and Hanson, a respite is granted St. Clair pending action upon the appeal.

Grand Coup for the Japs.

A Big Defeat for the Chinese.

Outposts Stormed and Brilliant Charges Made.

The Pigtails Driven in Confusion From the Field.

Moukden Will Be the Scene of the Next Big Battle.

YOKOHAMA, October 26.—Latest dispatches from Yalu river show that in the battle fought yesterday between the Chinese and Japanese 3500 Chinese troops of all arms were utterly routed.

THE TALE OF THE CONFLICT.

CHEMULPO, October 26.—Dispatches from Wi Ju dated midnight, give additional details of the battle fought between the Chinese and the Japanese across the Yalu river.

General Nodzu, Japanese chief of staff, it appears, succeeded in getting the main body of the Japanese army across the Yalu river, without mishap, before daylight Thursday.

Then Colonel Sato was sent forward at the head of a flying column on a reconnoitering expedition, and he discovered the enemy occupying a fortified position near the village of Fushang, on the right bank of the Yalu river.

Though he had no artillery at his disposal, Colonel Sato immediately commenced the attack upon the Chinese, and a fierce fight followed.

The Chinese fought desperately and stubbornly.

The attack began at 10 o'clock in the morning and lasted until night, when the Chinese began wavering, broke and eventually retired in great disorder, falling back upon Kulienchas.

The troops commanded by Colonel Sato, after the Chinese had retired, set to work upon the demolishment of the fortifications of Fushang.

Inside of the fortifications they found 200 Chinese dead.

The Japanese also captured a number of prisoners, among whom was a Chinese officer, who stated that the position was held by eighteen battalions of Chinese troops.

The Japanese escorting the prisoners then marched in the direction of General Nodzu's main body with the intention of rejoining it.

The number of Chinese wounded is not known.

The Japanese lost five officers and ninety men killed and wounded.

Later dispatches said the Chinese outposts were falling back upon Kulienchas, where it is expected the only determined stand of the Chinese in Manchuria will be made.

It is understood that Field Marshal Yamagata's plans are complete in every detail for inflicting what he hopes will turn out to be a crushing blow upon the Chinese.

WELL VERSED IN STRATEGY.

Several columns of the Japanese troops are acting in concert after the manner adopted by the Japanese commander at Ping Yang, and it is expected they will deliver a simultaneous attack upon the Chinese position.

If the Japanese field marshal's plans are carried out in the manner indicated in dispatches from the front, it is probable the network of the invadors will be completed around the Chinese position by midnight Saturday, thus enabling the Japanese attack to be delivered at dawn Sunday.

But if the Japanese columns succeed in occupying the position assigned them previous to midnight Saturday it is believed that an attack will be delivered at the earliest possible moment.

Some doubts are expressed among the Japanese commanders as to the reported strength of the Chinese position at Kulienchas.

It is reported that the Japanese batteries at Kalu and Kulien have been increased from three to eleven; but on the other hand, rumor says it is extremely doubtful whether all these batteries are fully armed.

The esprit de corps and health of the Japanese troops are excellent, and it is said to be the universal ambition to capture Moukden before the birthday of the Emperor of Japan, November 3d.

Rebels Routed.

TANGIER, October 26.—It is announced that Muley Amin, ordered by the Sultan to go to Melilla with a force of 700 infantry, 700 cavalry and four guns to delimit the Spanish and Moorish frontier, which hitherto has been prevented by the Riff tribesmen, has inflicted a crushing defeat upon rebellious Haiahinas.

AN ORATOR MOBBED.

Campaigning Is Not All Easy Sailing in the East.

INDIANAPOLIS, October 26.—The statement is credited of Milton Turner, on the highest authority that he had received a telegram from the Governor of Missouri asking if he wants protection from Missouri against mob violence and suggesting that he ask Governor Mathews of Indiana to to intercede in his behalf.

Turner, who was Minister to Liberia under Grant, attempted to deliver a Democratic speech in this city Wednesday night and was mobbed.

He says now he will probably address the colored people of this city again Saturday when more trouble may be expected.

MODERN GUY FAWKES.

Anarchists Want to Blow Up the French Parliament.

PARIS, October 26.—Le Matin states that information was recently received at the Prefecture of Police that three anarchists have resolved to come to Paris from Poissy, Lille and Lyons for the purpose of blowing up the Chamber of Deputies.

The Palais Bourbon is watched by police with redoubled vigilance, and the strictest surveillance is exercised over all suspected persons.

WESTERN WINGS

Advices Received From Honolulu and Samoa.

Royalists Again Talking About an Uprising.

Native Chiefs Still Under Arms in the South Seas.

SAN FRANCISCO, October 26.—The steamship Alameda arrived this morning from Sydney, Auckland, Apia and Honolulu bringing the following news advices from special correspondents of the Associated Press:

HONOLULU, October 18.—Rumors of a Royalist uprising have been very scarce for the last few months, but now that the first election of the new Republic draws near, these reports have again been circulated.

This time election day, October 29th, has been chosen as the date of an attempt to restore the ex-Queen, but very little stock is taken in the tale.

Nominations for Senators and Representatives have been made.

Out of the twelve chosen for this island (Oahu), only two are natives, and this has caused some criticism among the native annexationists.

Every nominee has been pledged to the support of the annexation plank in the platform to the exclusion of everything else.

Sanford Fleming, an Englishman, who has been in Honolulu for some time in the interests of the British Cable Company, leaves on the steamer today.

He has asked the Government to cede Necker island, which was the cause of so much comment a few months ago, to England, claiming that if this is done the cable project will be at once carried through, and Necker island will be a half-way house between Victoria and Australia, with a branch line to Honolulu.

He has also asked for an exclusive cable right on Hawaiian territory.

The latter proposition has not met with the approval of the Hawaiian Government and will probably not be acceded to.

The former grant would probably be made under certain conditions.

At present, no definite arrangement has been concluded.

SAMOAN NEWS.

APIA, Samoa, October 10.—There have been no recent conflicts between rival native bands.

All the warriors are still under arms, however, and the people here are prepared for an outbreak to occur at any time.

The Samoan Land Commission, which had prepared to hold sittings in the District of Atua to dispose of the cases there, were notified by the heads of the rebel party that they would not be allowed to do so.

The letter sent was a most important one.

It is expected the commission will now proceed to Atua on one of the warships.

A movement has been secretly inaugurated here to circulate a petition to the three treaty powers, urging the removal of President Schmidt, with whose administration there is considerable dissatisfaction.

Panic in a Church.

ST. PETERSBURG, October 26.—During the consecration of a church in Trokh, near Ostrovinsky, a lamp was upset. A cry of "fire" was raised and a panic followed. In the rush for the doors, two women and three children were trampled to death. Twenty-seven people were seriously injured.

Object to Education.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The War Department has referred to General McCook, commanding the Department of the Colorado, the complaint of the Indian Bureau that the Moquis Indians of Arizona threatens to outbreak as a result of the attempt of the agent to place their children in school. As the Moquis number but 500 and are not warlike not much importance is attached to their threats.

A Delay.

Another delay has taken place in the proposed moving of the Central Free Reading Room to 64 and 66 San Pablo avenue. The transfer was to have been made tomorrow, but cannot take place till Monday next.

The "Chicago" in Portugal.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The United States steamer Chicago has arrived at Lisbon.

THE HAYWARDS RALLY

County Candidates Are Welcomed With Open Arms.

The Republican county candidates were given a grand reception at Haywards last night. This was the first visit made by the candidates since the Republican Convention was held in the town.

The meeting was held in Native Sons' Hall. The hall had been very prettily decorated with flowers and flags.

A pretty feature of the meeting was the presentation to each speaker of a large bouquet.

Prior to the meeting there was an impromptu parade through the streets.

County Committeeman Hawes called the meeting to order and introduced H. E. Bruner, president of the Haywards Republican Club, as chairman of the evening. Mr. Bruner said that as there were a number of speakers present he would not take up the time of the audience in making a speech.

A ladies' quartet sang in a pleasing manner. The Campaign quartet was also present and made the usual hit.

A. L. Frick was then introduced as speaker of the evening. Mr. Frick made an able address and was frequently applauded.

After commenting upon the importance of this election to the people of this State and its effect upon the future of the Republican party he proceeded to examine the records of both parties in this State and fully demonstrated by official statistics that affairs have been more economically administered in this State under Republican administrations than under Democratic. He called attention to the fact that the Governor had no power to reduce State expenditures except by the exercise of the veto power, and arraigned Mr. Budd for making promises that he knew he could not fulfil. The speaker contrasted the Democrat's flippant oratory, impossible promises and undignified conduct in this campaign with the manly bearing and dignified utterances of Mr. Estee. Continuing he said:

"The worst kind of a falsehood is the truth but half told, and the most dangerous man is the demagogue who tells half the truth and conceals the other half for the purpose of self aggrandisement."

He accused Mr. Budd of doing this in his comparisons of the expense of running our State Prisons with the expense to those States that have the system of convict labor in the manufacture of articles, and the bringing of free labor into competition with convict labor.

"With reference to bossism in politics, he said: 'I deny that the Convention that gave to the Republican ticket the name of F. W. Henshaw for Justice of the Supreme Court, was dominated by any boss or by any influence other than the honest effort of the respective delegations of independent men at Sacramento, to give to us a ticket, the election of which would insure an honest and economical government of affairs."

Calling attention to the fact that the country was prosperous and her people happy at the close of the Harrison Administration, he charged the business depression and the fact that 2,000,000 men in the nation are out of employment to the hostile character of the present administration to our industries and laborers. He then exhaustively dealt with the provisions of the Wilson bill, and called attention to its discriminations against the industries of California, and particularly to the wool, fruit, hop and sugar beet industries.

Continuing, he added: "The Republicans have nominated a ticket, State, county and Legislative, worthy of your respect and confidence, from which not one single name should be erased; a ticket composed of men the election of whom will insure an honest, fearless, efficient, and economical administration of public affairs in every department."

In closing, he predicted that the people of this State would "marshal themselves under the standard of the Republican party and with protection, reciprocity and the equal rights of all, inscribed upon their banner, march in solid phalanx to the polls on the 6th of November and cast their ballots for that exponent of true Americanism—the able statesman, the honest man, M. M. Estee, and the whole Republican ticket, State, county and Legislative."

Dr. Tisdale of Alameda now made a few remarks, and spoke particularly of his friend James B. Barber, whom he nominated for Tax Collector.

The county candidates were next introduced, and all made short speeches. George W. Frick was given an ovation when he appeared on the platform. Haywards is his old home, and the people cheered him in royal style.

The meeting then adjourned amid cheers.

A DUAL LIFE.

Trainrobber Abroad, Respected at Home.

A Quiet Little Town Stirred Up in Missouri.

One of Its Leading Citizens Proves to Be a Desperado.

NEELYVILLE, Mo., October 26.—When the people of this quiet little city read of the bold hold-up and express robbery at Aquia Creek they little thought the leader of the desperadoes was one of their most respected citizens.

Charles A. Morgan and his handsome young wife have been residents of Neelyville for the past two years.

Morgan would frequently be gone for a month or two at a time, but the people here thought nothing of it and no one suspected that he was other than a man of property who could afford to take little pleasure trips at his will.

The first connection between Morgan of Neelyville and Morganfield was suspected by Chief of Police Charles Flanagan when Morganfield was found with his leg broken near Cincinnati.

Mr. Flanagan at once took steps to confirm his suspicion.

The identification was complete when he received a photograph from the Chief of Police of Cincinnati of Morganfield as he lay on his couch at the city hospital.

Morgan left here nearly two months ago and not even his wife knew where he was, and had not heard from him since he left.

Mrs. Morgan is a lady in every particular and is much distressed at the accusations against her husband, saying that "Charley had too much sense to do such a thing."

Since Morgan has lived here he has made many friends, and the people can scarcely credit the statement that he could commit such a deed.

While they admit that Morgan and Morganfield are one and the same, they still think that there must be some grievous mistake and that he was not connected with the robbery.

Morgan, while at home was strictly temperate, paying his debts promptly, and it is believed has considerable property.

A RUMPUS RAISED.

Populist Orators Warring on the Streets.

There was strong evidence of anything but harmony among the members of the People's Party, this morning, in front of the entrance to the headquarters on Broadway, between Eighth and Ninth streets.

J. H. Fones, the street talker, and agitator Stetson, exchanged compliments, Fones characterizing Stetson as a traitor, and Stetson responding by calling Fones a coward and upstart, and a puffed up pretender who could murder more English language in a minute than a gatling gun could in a year.

Fones made little headway against Stetson when it was a case of tongue against tongue. He gradually drew away from his irate little opponent, and disappeared up the stairway leading to the headquarters.

Stetson followed, applying various epithets upon the retreating street orator, and threatening to punch his two eyes into one.

The belligerents attracted a large number of spectators, some of whom endeavored to make the fighters substitute fists for words, and they came very near being successful, too.

The Euskar Turns Up.

QUEENSTOWN, October 26.—The British steamer Euskar, from Philadelphia, October 4th, for London, for the safety of which some fears were felt, has been towed to this port with its shaft broken by the steamer McGarel from Norfolk.

The Ameer Is All Right.

CALCUTTA, October 26.—News has been received at Simla, dated October 20th, from Gaboul, that the Ameer of Afghanistan was attending to business as usual.

A Warehouse Destroyed.

CHICAGO, October 26.—One of the large warehouses of the William Deering Reaping Works was burned today. Loss, $100,000; insured.

KILLS DISEASE.

A Discovery of Great Value to Medicine.

Inoculation for Diphtheria and Croup.

Splendid Results So Far From Using the Serum.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The new treatment by inoculation for diphtheria and croup, as practiced in France, is the subject of a special report to the State Department by United States Consul C. W. Chancellor at Havre.

He says by that method of treatment only one out of four diphtheretic patients succumb, whereas the figure is double for other methods of treatment heretofore applied.

Consequently the Consul, who is a Baltimore physician of repute, says that it would seem very desirable that the anti-diphtheretic serum should be introduced and come into general use at the earliest period practicable in America, where many thousand children and numerous physicians, students and nurses die annually from diphtheria and croup.

The Consul gives in detail a history of the development of the treatment by Dr. Pasteur and his assistant, Dr. Roux, who have been experimenting with it for five years, keeping it secret until they had satisfied themselves of its efficiency and had subjected the animal (the horse) best adapted to transform diphtheretic poison into an anti-toxine.

A trial of the new treatment at one of the largest children's hospitals of Paris resulted in reducing the death rate from diphtheria from 51.70 per cent to 24 33 per cent.

In addition it is stated that children vaccinated with the serum were protected from the disease even while living in close contact with diphtheretic patients.

As the Pasteur Institute cannot meet the great demand for the serum, movements are on foot in different localities to establish auxiliary stations.

In slight cases one injection of the serum is sufficient, while the ordinary case yields to two.

NO WORK NOW.

A Cargo of Provisions for the Hungry Army.

Bounteous Supply Provided by a Rancher.

The Industrials Going Ready for Their Grand March.

The Industrials are assured of provisions for some time to come. Yesterday a Stockton rancher, named Weston, called at headquarters and offered to loan a schooner to the 'weelers and fill it with vegetables, consisting chiefly of potatoes and beans, if Kelley would send a crew to bring the craft down. Of course the offer was accepted, and yesterday afternoon three men were sent to the Slough City. They expect to arrive in Oakland tomorrow afternoon.

There is a dark and dismal uncertainty about the movements of the army in the country. One of the officers said this morning that the benevolent industrials will return to Oakland tomorrow morning, unless the leaders changed their plans again.

One by one the choice spirits who elected a new set of officers every other day in Carter's barn last spring, and finally sailed away under the leadership of Admiral Smith, are returning to town to make ready for the great march on to Washington. A couple of days ago one of the captains of the second California regiment marched gayly into the tent, and was received with open arms. This individual was prominently identified with the strike at Sacramento, and is such a hero in the eyes of his comrades that it is possible in the next few days he may be commissioned generalissimo.

WILL FIGHT BACK.

Discretionary Poolmen to Go to Law.

PITTSBURG, October 26.—The discretionary pool managers, tired of assaults upon their credit and character, have determined to do some fighting.

It has been pretty well established that there is no law in this State under which they can be attacked unless they default, and probably not then.

Manager Dudgeon of the Traders' Syndicate and Manager Devlin of the American Syndicate, both incorporated in West Virginia, but with headquarters at Chicago, have combined forces.

They will demand the appointment of a committee by the Chamber of Commerce to go to Chicago and examine the operations of the syndicates, the latter paying all expenses.

They claim they will show that their operations are legitimate, and then they will take legal action against all persons who have criticised them and thereby caused the recent run.

A REPRIEVE.

Cleveland Grants a Respite to Thomas St. Clair.

WASHINGTON, October 26.—The President has granted further respite until November 23d next to Thomas St. Clair, convicted in California of murder on the high seas.

He was sentenced to be hanged with Herman Sparf and Hans Hanson, October 26, 1893, but an appeal having been taken to the United States Supreme Court by Sparf and Hanson, a respite is granted St. Clair pending action upon the appeal.

NEW PLANS.

Industrials Will Not Go to San Jose.

Discontent Is Being Shown in the Ranks.

Marshal Smith Has Been Located in an Omaha Jail.

The Industrial march to San Jose has been given up and the Garden City breathes free again. Tomorrow the soldiers will return to Oakland.

There are a couple of reasons advanced for the failure of the crusaders to follow their original intention. One is that despite their assertions, the leaders were not particularly pleased at their reception; the other is that having received an invitation from the Populists to take part in the jollification Monday evening they have decided to accept it. This latter assertion is not denied by the wealers.

Something of moment is in the air, though. Wednesday "General" Kelley said he would make Rome howl within two weeks. Further than that he refused to commit himself. There is considerable talk that the army is not such a success as it is cracked up to be, and that Kelley is studying some way to get out of the business.

Information has been received at headquarters that General-Doctor-Marshal Smith, who led the second regiment of Industrials out of Oakland last May, is serving a nine months' term in jail at Omaha. It seems the part he took in last year's commotion made him amenable to the law, so he was arrested and placed in durance vile. Tonight Mrs. "General" Smith and Kelley will go to Alvarado, the terminal point of the pre-sent expedition, and deliver addresses on the causes of the present discontent.

It has leaked out that during the week following Kelley's injury at the hands of Officer Scanlan, and while his friends and sympathizers were informing the public that he was dangerously ill, he was out of bed all the time, and about the house, keeping himself secluded from public view.

On the following Tuesday morning he was able to be about.

The number of men in camp is about seventy-five. This number is constantly maintained, as the visitors are regularly going and coming.

MAKING MILLIONS.

Discretionary Pools in Full Blast in Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 25.—The raid on the discretionary pools at Pittsburg has started inquiries in this city, and investigation reveals the existence in Chicago of a large number of such concerns, which are doing a rushing business.

Indeed, Chicago harbors a perfect nest of them, and it is said that they have taken in $4,000,000 or $5,000,000 during the year.

There are fifteen or twenty concerns located in the back offices of the buildings of the Board of Trade quarter, running what they call "speculative pools."

Many, it is said, have been immensely successful.

Gracie Plaisted Fowler, wife of Frank L. Fowler, has purchased the Hart residence on the southwest corner of Twelfth and Market streets.

Mrs. Fowler is the prima donna at the Tivoli in San Francisco.

The marriage took place recently at Claremont.

A SMALLPOX SCARE.

Rush to Get Vaccinated at Washington.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The health authorities are using the greatest endeavors to prevent an epidemic of smallpox.

Its prevalence has caused considerable alarm, and it is estimated that over 00 people were vaccinated today.

An agent of the health department visited the Interior department and at his request Secretary Smith issued an order requiring all employees to be vaccinated.

The force at the department was in a panic today, owing to the fact that three smallpox victims are employed in the Interior department.

POORLY PATRONIZED.

Some of the Night Schools Will Be Closed.

The fate of the night schools at the Prescott, the Franklin, the Central and the Garfield schools will be determined next Monday or Tuesday by Superintendent McClymonds.

In accordance with the instructions of the board, Mr. McClymonds has been making an inquiry into the attendance at the several night classes, with authority to discontinue the same in the event that each class, during the present month, has not had an average attendance of fifteen pupils each night.

It is now assured that the drawing-class at the Central night school will be discontinued, because some evenings it attracts only two or three scholors and others none at all.

A Commissioner's Sale.

A DEATH WATCH

St. Clair's Day of Execution Draws Near,

He Will Be Strung Up in the Garden City.

The Fatal Warrant Is to Be Returned November 2d.

SAN JOSE, Cal., October 25.—United States Marshal Baldwin arrived here today to arrange for the execution of Thomas St. Clair, one of the three condemned murderers belonging to the mutinous crew of the American bark Hesper.

St. Clair will be executed in the County Jail here November 2d.

Sparf and Hanson, his accomplices in the murder of the Hesper's mate, Fitzgerald, have also been sentenced to death, but have appeals pending in the United States Supreme Court.

The death watch was placed over St. Clair this morning.

Baldwin says that although St. Clair is an United States prisoner, the provisions of the State law regarding executions will be strictly followed and only the necessary legal witnesses and attendants will be admitted.

The Marshal says reporters will be excluded.

Discontent Is Being Shown in the Ranks.

Marshal Smith Has Been Located in an Omaha Jail.

The Industrial march to San Jose has been given up and the Garden City breathes free again. Tomorrow the soldiers will return to Oakland.

There are a couple of reasons advanced for the failure of the crusaders to follow their original intention. One is that despite their assertions, the leaders were not particularly pleased at their reception, the other is that having received an invitation from the Populists to take part in the jollification Monday evening they have decided to accept it. This latter assertion is not denied by the 'weaders.

Something of moment is in the air, though. Wednesday "General" Kelley said he would make Rome howl within two weeks. Further than that he refused to commit himself. There is considerable talk that the army is not such a success as it is cracked up to be, and that Kelley is studying some way to get out of the business.

Information has been received at headquarters that General-Doctor-Marshal Smith, who led the second regiment of Industrials out of Oakland last May, is serving a nine months' term in jail at Omaha. It seems the part he took in last year's commotion made him amenable to the law, so he was arrested and placed in durance vile. Tonight Mrs. "General" Smith and Kelley will go to Alvarado, the terminal point of the present expedition, and deliver addresses on the causes of the present discontent.

It has leaked out that during the week following Kelley's foray at the hands of Officer Scanlan, and while his friends and sympathizers were informing the public that he was dangerously ill, he was out of bed all the time, and about the house, keeping himself secluded from public view.

On the following Tuesday morning he was able to be about.

The number of men in camp is about seventy-five. This number is constantly maintained, as the visitors are regularly going and coming.

MAKING MILLIONS.

Discretionary Pools in Full Blast in Chicago.

CHICAGO, October 25.—The raid on the discretionary pools at Pittsburg has started inquiries in this city, and investigation reveals the existence in Chicago of a large number of such concerns, which are doing a rushing business.

Indeed, Chicago harbors a perfect nest of them, and it is said that they have taken in $1,000,000 or $5,000,000 during the year.

There are fifteen or twenty concerns located in the back offices of the buildings of the Board of Trade quarter, running what they call "speculative pools."

Many, it is said, have been immensely successful.

A SMALLPOX SCARE,

Rush to Get Vaccinated at Washington.

WASHINGTON, October 25.—The health authorities are using the greatest endeavors to prevent an epidemic of smallpox.

Its prevalence has caused considerable alarm, and it is estimated that over 60 people were vaccinated today.

An agent of the health department visited the Interior department and at his request Secretary Smith issued an order requiring all employees to be vaccinated.

The force at the department was in a panic today, owing to the fact that three smallpox victims are employed in the Interior department.

POORLY PATRONIZED.

Some of the Night Schools Will Be Closed.

The fate of the night schools at the Prescott, the Franklin, the Central and the Garfield schools will be determined next Monday or Tuesday by Superintendent McClymonds.

In accordance with the instructions of the board, Mr. McClymonds has been making an inquiry into the attendance at the several night classes, with authority to discontinue the same in the event that each class, during the present month, has not had an average attendance of fifteen pupils each night.

It is now assured that the drawing-class at the Central night school will be discontinued, because some evenings it attracts only two or three scholars and others none at all.

A DEATH WATCH

St. Clair's Day of Execution Draws Near.

He Will Be Strung Up in the Garden City.

The Fatal Warrant Is to Be Returned November 2d.

SAN JOSE, Cal., October 25.—United States Marshal Baldwin arrived here today to arrange for the execution of Thomas St. Clair, one of the three condemned murderers belonging to the mutinous crew of the American bark Hesper.

St. Clair will be executed in the County Jail here November 2d.

Sparl and Hanson, his accomplices in the murder of the Hesper's mate, Fitzgerald, have also been sentenced to death, but have appeals pending in the United States Supreme Court.

The death watch was placed over St. Clair this morning.

Baldwin says that although St. Clair is an United States prisoner, the provisions of the State law regarding executions will be strictly followed and only the necessary legal witnesses and attendants will be admitted.

The Marshal says reporters will be excluded.

A Panorama of America!

If it were possible to rise to an altitude sufficiently high to permit an observer to view through a telescope the whole of North America at one time, what a wondrous spectable would meet his gaze. Beautiful as it might appear, yet the vision would not be half so satisfactory as that which is afforded by the Great Pictographic Portfolio,

Glimpses of America

Which THE OAKLAND TRIBUNE is now distributing among its subscribers. It is a grand procession of scenic wonderlands pictorially presented in a realism that is bewilderingly charming. By means of this most exquisite of all art works, the reader is carried in his easy rocking-chair to

All the Picturesque Regions of Our Country,

From sunny lands where zephyrs are redolent with the breath of orange blooms to regions where frosted peaks catch the gleams from Ithuriel's spears and bathe glacial rivers in a light that rises from behind the polar throne. By its magic pages we are taken across the great plains into the heart of the mighty Rockies, and set down amid the witchery of chaotic nature. Thence to the Yosemite, and the wondrous Northwest to Alaska's icy climes. Back again over mountainous ways to Yellowstone Park, thence on by Minnehaha's laughing waters to Superior's pictured shores, by Niagara's raging flood to the deep forests, mountains, rivers and gorges of Canada and the Northwest.

Thence into the smoky and BlueRidge ranges, by famous battle-fields, the Natural Bridge, through the Dismal Smamp and whitened cotton fields into the lands of perennial summer. And while giving pictures of surprising beauty, Glimpses of America also

OPPOSITION.

Conservatives Insist on the Old Ritual.

No Changes Can Be Made for a Year Anyhow.

The Remarks of the Rabbis Are Resented by Many.

The question of reform in the service of the First Hebrew Congregation will not be effected as rapidly as the more advanced members of the society would like, if indeed it is not deferred indefinitely.

It has just been announced that, at the last meeting of the congregation, which was held a few days ago, a resolution was adopted which insisted that no further change should be made in the ritual or the services of the synagogue for a year, without the consent of the congregation.

This resolution, it is claimed, was suggested by the fact that several changes have recently been made in the services, and, it is alleged, without being discussed at a meeting of the society.

The discourse of Rabbi Friedlander, last Sunday night, on "Progress," therefore, in which there were suggestions of reform, is considered strange by some members of the society in the light of the resolution referred to. They claim they cannot understand why the rabbi should have introduced the subject, unless he had not been informed of the adoption of the resolution.

These same members say that the presence of Rabbi Voorsanger on the same occasion was unexpected and that he had no right to speak as he did with reference to methods of worship, which, while they may be satisfactory to him and the people of his synagogue, will never be accepted by a large number of the older members of the First Hebrew Congregation of this city.

OPPOSITION.

Conservatives Insist on the Old Ritual.

No Changes Can Be Made for a Year Anyhow.

The Remarks of the Rabbis Are Resented by Many.

The question of reform in the service of the First Hebrew Congregation will not be effected as rapidly as the more advanced members of the society would like, if indeed it is not deferred indefinitely.

It has just been announced that, at the last meeting of the congregation, which was held a few days ago, a resolution was adopted which insisted that no further change should be made in the ritual or the services of the synagogue for a year, without the consent of the congregation.

This resolution, it is claimed, was suggested by the fact that several changes have recently been made in the services, and, it is alleged, without being discussed at a meeting of the society.

The discourse of Rabbi Friedlander, last Sunday night, on "Progress," therefore, in which there were suggestions of reform, is considered strange by some members of the society in the light of the resolution referred to. They claim they cannot understand why the rabbi should have introduced the subject, unless he had not been informed of the adoption of the resolution.

These same members say that the presence of Rabbi Voorsanger on the same occasion was unexpected and that he had no right to speak as he did with reference to methods of worship, which, while they may be satisfactory to him and the people of his synagogue, will never be accepted by a large number of the older members of the First Hebrew Congregation of this city.

FRIDAY.....OCTOBER 26 1894

EVERY name on the Republican county ticket ought to receive the full vote of the Republican party.

"THE Great Undecided" is what the Calaveras Prospect calls Caminetti, and the nickname is apropos, for he declined the nomination for Congress three times, and it is really unsettled whether he or Mrs. Caminetti accepted it when offered him the fourth time.

THERE is a split in the Populist ranks in Los Angeles on local issues, and the more conservative element has indorsed ex-Mayor Workman, the Democratic nominee for Mayor. Workman is one of the old timers, and made a good Mayor when in that office many years ago.

THIS is pre-eminently a Republican year in all the Eastern States in which elections have so far been held. Some States that have been Democratic for many years have forsworn their allegiance to the party of "perfidy and dishonor" this year, and given their adhesion to the Republican party. This is to be a Republican year also in California, or all the signs are misleading and all the prophets are false. Alameda county must be in line in the procession. Nothing will be satisfactory excepting that she be at her proper station at the head of the Republican column.

LET no one be deluded by the "independent" candidate in this election. The "independent" candidate relies upon Republican votes for his success. Has any one noticed any Democrat set up as an "independent" candidate for any office in the gift of the county? The Democrats, or such of them as have not gone after other false gods in the Populist camp, are silent and solid. They are relying upon the "independent" candidate to wean votes away from the Republican ticket. It ought to be remembered, and the sober second thought will teach the truth of the assertion to every Republican, that every Republican vote cast for an "independent" candidate in the coming election is virtually a vote for a Democrat. It is not the intention of any Republican, we are sure, to cast his vote that way for that purpose, but if he does that will surely be the effect of it.

Inauguration of Populism.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Yes, my darling daughter;
But whatever you may do,
Don't go near the water."

The above doggerel is typical of the attitude of the Populists towards their own propositions for the advancement of society. They propose Government acquisition of railroads, telegraphs, water works, mines and other so-called natural monopolies, and in the same breath oppose the issuance of bonds and the payment of interest. Want of sense or sincerity is evidenced by such suggestions, unless a more sinister design is to be sprung upon society, in that it may be contemplated to confiscate the title and interests now enjoyed by the present owners of property. The latter alternative is the only plan which could be adopted if such properties were to be acquired by the Government without issuing bonds in payment. So unjust and revolutionary a course must meet with the reprobation of all right-thinking people and consolidate the conservative members of society in opposing and discountenancing so dangerous a doctrine. A party which seeks to draw to its ranks the discontented and disorderly members of society, which applaud all violations of law and order and gives encouragement to the idle and the incompetent may well adopt as its policy an attack on thrift and industry. The strong common sense of the people of the country cannot be blinded by any party whose leaders are cranks and disappointed aspirants for office and whose want of principles are sought to be covered by contradictory appeals to every prejudice and whim of the visionary and the vicious.

Wrong Again.

The Napa Journal has a penchant for making itself ridiculous. It pronounced the statement made by THE TRIBUNE that tin plate mills were closing their doors, under the free-trade heresy of the Democratic party, "a lie!" We call attention of the "unmannerly" editor to the following from the Iron Age of September 6, 1894.

"The initial effects of the new tin plate tariff are shown in the closing down of all the smaller tin plate "dipping" works in this vicinity, a proceeding which will, doubtless, generally be followed by these establishments in other quarters. The ground seems to have been completely cut from under the feet of these and similarly placed establishments, unless, indeed, the price of domestic black sheets is very materially reduced; as, under the revised tariff, they cannot afford to buy the imported article and dip it, so as to sell their product in competition with the foreign tin plates imported under the new duty of 1.2 cents per pound. The only other way of escape for the American dipper making the cheaper grades of plates would be if the Welsh manufacturers plucked up courage to raise their prices for the finished plates sufficiently high to approximate the possible prices at which American black plates can be profitably coated and sold here. It seems hardly likely, however, that our Welsh competitors would pursue so shortsighted a course in respect to their own interests after all they have suffered from the recent restriction of American orders."

The Iron Age is undoubtedly authority upon all matters of the iron industry.

Voters Stampeding for Estee.

The Sacramento Bee did not favor the nomination nor has it said or done anything to help the election of M. M. Estee to the office of Governor, but it has the courage of its convictions, and does not hesitate to express them, even though these convictions are adverse to the position it has heretofore assumed. This is the way the honest Bee expresses itself on the situation now: "Democratic organs appear to be angry because voters are going in blocks to Estee, instead of in Indian file. The fact makes them howl, not the mere method of its statement."

The Bee is not alone in its observation of the popular drift. For some time past the stampede has been in full force in the southern counties, and late arrivals from that part of the State report the greatest enthusiasm for Estee and the Republican ticket. The stampede has been started throughout the northern and central parts of the State in the same way, only it has not yet reached the same proportions, perhaps, as it has south of the Tehachapi range. But "it will get there," all the same, before election day. Estee's canvass of the State has been one of popular education. He has educated the masses into a knowledge of the fact that there is something greater, deeper and more important involved in this campaign than mere "local issues," and his speeches have been so clear, so fair and so convincing that the voters everywhere have ruminated over what he has said, discussed among themselves every point he has advanced, pro and con, and been forced to admit the force and truthfulness of his arguments. He has not avoided "local issues" by any means; nor has any other Republican speaker in this campaign avoided them; but they have been elucidated by the incontrovertible evidence of facts and figures, unembellished by delusive sophistry or misleading assumptions.

Then again, Estee and his supporters in the field have conducted a clean, impersonal campaign. Efforts have been made by the enemy, it is true, to drag personalities into the contest; and mud-slinging and prevarication and scurrilous publication have been employed to incite Republicans to personal and defamatory warfare. But all of these have been unavailing. The keynote of the Republican campaign has been—arguments, not abuse; issues, not individuals; measures, not men; principles, not personalities. It is having a telling effect. The wisdom of this method of conducting the campaign is being established by "the blocks of voters," which are, as the Sacramento Bee says, "going to Estee."

THE Stockton Mail rejects the proposition made by the Sacramento Record-Union that the indebtedness of the Central Pacific Railroad Company to the Federal Government on the second mortgage bonds, amounting to $70,000,000, and to the holders of the first mortgage bonds, which amounts to $15,000,000, be adjusted by the methods "approved by business experience and commercial practice," when the debtor is unable to pay his debts. The Mail holds that an adjustment on such a basis would be against good public policy. After recounting at length the manner in which the Federal Government lent its credit and gave the public lands to the Central Pacific Railroad Company, the Mail says:

We shall therefore urge upon the public the propriety of such effective measures as will induce the Government of the United States to foreclose its mortgage, discharge what remains of the first mortgage and guarantee to the industries of the Pacific coast a cheap outlet to the markets of the East. * * * The Pacific Railroads were built for the purpose of building up the industries and commerce of the Pacific States and Territories. What we have a right to demand is that Government ownership and Government operation of the road shall have in view the original purpose for which the aid was extended, viz., that of promoting the growth of population and wealth west of the Rocky Mountains.

THE New York Advertiser of the 19th inst. has the following bit of personal gossip which is of local interest:

It is said that the Rev. Rr. Francis Horton of Providence, R. I., is to succeed the Rev. Dr. Bartlett as pastor of the New York Avenue Presbyterian Church of Washington.

Dr. Horton left the pastorate of the First Presbyterian Church of this city to take charge of the Congregational Church at Providence, R. I. If what the Advertiser says is true, the change he now contemplates making will bring him again into the Presbyterian fold. It is becoming a very common thing nowadays for a Presbyterian minister to assume the pastorate of a Congregational church and vice versa, although in doctrinal belief and church government there is a marked difference between the two denominations.

THE Fresno Republican says that the Populist parade in that city last Monday night, on the occasion of the visit of J. V. Webster, the Populist nominee for Governor, outdid the Democratic parade on the occasion of the visit of Budd. But the Republican adds that wagon loads of hay and women were liberally dispersed through the line, and neither represent voters, while votes only count.

AFTER experiencing eighteen months of bad times, loss of employment and reduced wages, as the result of the ruinous rule of a Democratic National Administration, aided by a Democratic Congress, what workingman can go to the polls at the coming election and conscientiously vote the Democratic ticket?

MEN TO VOTE FOR.

H. M. COLLINS,

Republican Nominee from the Forty-Ninth Assembly District.

The Republican nominee for Assemblyman from the Forty-ninth Assembly District is H. M. Collins, a long-time resident and merchant of the First ward and a former member of the city government.

Mr. Collins is a New Yorker by birth. He came to California when he was 20 years of age. From 1853 to 1861 he engaged in mining in El Dorado county. He then went into a grocery house in Placerville and was in the business for sixteen years.

During his residence in Placerville Mr. Collins served in the Town Council for two years—during 1871 and 1872—and as such was an efficient representative.

In 1877 the firm dissolved and Mr. Collins came to Oakland to live. He then bought the store where he now conducts his business, at West Oakland.

In 1880 he was elected Councilman from the First ward, as a member of the local legislative body which put in operation our present system of local government, and was a member of that body for two years. The last year of his term Mr. Collins was President of the Council and for a term ex-officio acting Mayor. He was an earnest, able and conscientious Councilman and gave the city good and faithful service.

Mr. Collins is a good speaker, having a ready flow of language, is skilled in debate and quite at home in legislative work. He is, consequently, well qualified to ably represent the district. He is an ardent Republican and entitled to the full measure of the party vote. Mr. Collins ought to be elected by the voters of the Forty-ninth Assembly district by a handsome majority. A vote for him means a vote for George C. Perkins for United States Senator.

CLINTON G. DODGE,

Republican Nominee from the Fifty-First Assembly District.

The Legislative ticket is of greater importance than usual this year. It underlies a United States Senatorship and in that way has a direct bearing upon the affairs of the nation. Practically, therefore, Alameda county voters are expressing their choice for United States Senator when they are voting for a member of the State Legislature.

The Republican Legislative conventions have selected men well worthy of the honor and well qualified to perform the duties of legislators in the nominations they have made for State legislative representatives.

Clinton G. Dodge is the Republican nominee from the Fifty-first Assembly district. He has already served one term, and that in such an able and commendable way that he was fully entitled to the nomination for a second term, and his constituents would be lacking in a due appreciation of true merit if he were not re-elected with a much greater majority than he received at his first election.

Mr. Dodge was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1857. He received his early education in the common schools of that city. He removed to California in 1877, and for some time lived in Santa Cruz county. In 1880 and 1881 he was employed in Bradstreet's Commercial Agency in San Francisco, but being in poor health he came to Oakland to live. After his recovery he accepted the position of brakeman in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company. He followed this occupation for four years, but being of an ambitious and studious turn of mind he took up the study of the law during his leisure hours. He prosecuted his studies so satisfactorily that in 1885, while yet a brakeman, he passed a successful examination before the Supreme Court and was admitted to practice. The same year he abandoned railroading and took up the active duties of his profession.

Two years ago Mr. Dodge was elected to the Assembly by the Republicans of the Fifty-first district. He made a splendid record in the Legislature. He was a member of the more important committees, among them the Judiciary committee. His views were courted by his colleagues, and his advice was sought on every important measure that came before the Assembly. A member of that stamp reflects credit upon his district, and an acknowledgment of it should be emphasized at the polls. If he is elected Mr. Dodge will be a candidate for the Speakership of the House.

BITS OF GOSSIP.

Joseph T. Field of Red Bank, N. J., is just 102 years of age. Before 1856 he was an Old Line Whig, and since then he has voted, without miss, the straight Republican ticket. He has three children, born since he was 72, and he is mentally as bright as the youngest.

Senator Peffer's son, who has been an assistant doorkeeper of the Senate since his pa took office, has been dropped from the rolls. Although a Populist, the bewhiskered Senator has demonstrated that he is something of a papulist. He succeeded in getting Government places for three of his boys. If his party ever gets into power Peffer may be able to place his whole family at the public crib.

Sir Holliday Macartney, although an Englishman, is secretary of the Chinese Legation in London.

Every one of England's royal princes wears a fac simile of his bride's wedding ring.

The Marquis de Villobal, who came to the Columbian Exposition with his brother, the Duke de Veragua, both guests of the nation as descendants of Columbus, is again in this country. Neither the Marquis nor any of his family is rich, and it is hinted that his mission is to revive the American subscription which was hurriedly begun and suddenly collapsed in Chicago last year.

William Barnes, a clerk in the Treasury Department, Washington, died October 16th. He entered the Government service during the last year of Buchanan's Administration, and his special duty was to handle and store treasury notes. Without doubt more money passed through his hands actually than was ever handled by any other man that ever lived. An idea of the amount of money which he has had in his temporary possession may be gleaned from the fact that one day a few years ago he lifted and stored in the vaults no less than $60,000,000.

Nicholas Alexandrovitch, the Czarewitch of Russia, unlike his imperial father, is short and delicate looking. He is a student rather than a warrior.

Now that Dr. Holmes is dead, Gladstone is the sole survivor of that remarkable group of men born in 1808. The list includes besides the two named, Lincoln, Darwin and Tennyson.

John W. Crisfield of Princess Anne, Md., is one of the oldest practicing lawyers in the United States. He sometimes appears before his son, Judge Henry Page, who dropped the paternal name many years ago. Mr. Crisfield has lived to see the odd little amphibious town that he founded and named for himself about thirty years ago grown into the most important place on the eastern shore of the Chesapeake.

How Could I Know?

So many flowers bloomed in that noonday sun,
How could I know
That when I trod on one
And crushed its golden glow,
Now wandering in dim lowlands, grown and sere,
The tiniest faded blossom would seem dear?
How could I know?

There were so many days the sunshine kissed,
How could I know,
When one I gaily missed
And laughing, let it go,
That in the long watches of some solemn night,
Dawn's dullest ray I should call heavenly bright?
How could I know?

So many dear ones in those happy years!
How could I know
That when I mocked their tears
And left them loving so,
In lonely, barren after-time I'd pray
For weakest touch of hands I flung away!
How could I know?

FRIDAY ....OCTOBER 26 1894

EVERY name on the Republican county ticket ought to receive the full vote of the Republican party.

"THE Great Undecided" is what the Calaveras Prospect calls Caminetti, and the nickname is apropos, for he declined the nomination for Congress three times, and it is really unsettled whether he or Mrs. Caminetti accepted it when offered him the fourth time.

THERE is a split in the Populist ranks in Los Angeles on local issues, and the more conservative element has indorsed ex-Mayor Workman, the Democratic nominee for Mayor. Workman is one of the old timers, and made a good Mayor when in that office many years ago.

THIS is pre-eminently a Republican year in all the Eastern States in which elections have so far been held. Some States that have been Democratic for many years have foresworn their allegiance to the party of "perfidy and dishonor" this year, and given their adhesion to the Republican party. This is to be a Republican year also in California, or all the signs are misleading and all the prophets are false. Alameda county must be in line in the procession. Nothing will be satisfactory excepting that she be at her proper station at the head of the Republican column.

LET no one be deluded by the "independent" candidate in this election. The "independent" candidate relies upon Republican votes for his success. Has any one noticed any Democrat set up as an "independent" candidate for any office in the gift of the county? The Democrats, or such of them as have not gone after other false gods in the Populist camp, are quiet and solid. They are relying upon the "independent" candidate to wean votes away from the Republican ticket. It ought to be remembered, and the sober second thought will teach the truth of the assertion to every Republican, that every Republican vote cast for an "independent" candidate in the coming election is virtually a vote for a Democrat. It is not the intention of any Republican, we are sure, to cast his vote that way for that purpose, but if he does that will surely be the effect of it.

Inauguration of Populism.

"Mother, may I go out to swim?"
"Yes, my darling daugh er;
But whatever you may do,
Don't go near the water."

The above doggerel is typical of the attitude of the Populists towards their own propositions for the advancement of society. They propose Government acquisition of railroads, telegraphs, water works, mines and other so-called natural monopolies, and in the same breath oppose the issuance of bonds and the payment of interest. Republican Nominee from the Forty-Ninth Assembly District.

The Republican nominee for Assemblyman from the Forty-ninth Assembly District is H. M. Collins, a long-time resident and merchant of the First ward and a former member of the city government.

Mr. Collins is a New Yorker by birth. He came to California when he was 20 years of age. From 1858 to 1861 he engaged in mining in El Dorado county. He then went into a grocery house in Placerville and was in the business for sixteen years.

During his residence in Placerville Mr. Collins served in the Town Council for two years—during 1871 and 1872—and as such was an efficient representative.

In 1877 the firm dissolved and Mr. Collins came to Oakland to live. He then bought the store where he now conducts his business, at West Oakland.

In 1880 he was elected Councilman from the First ward, as a member of the local legislative body which put in operation our present system of local government, and was a member of that body for two years. The last year of his term Mr. Collins was President of the Council and for a term ex-officio acting Mayor. He was an earnest, able and conscientious Councilman and gave the city good and faithful service.

Mr. Collins is a good speaker, having a ready flow of language, is skilled in debate and quite at home in legislative work. He is, consequently, well qualified to ably represent the district. He is an ardent Republican and entitled to the full measure of the party vote. Mr. Collins ought to be elected by the voters of the Forty-ninth Assembly district by a handsome majority. A vote for him means a vote for George C. Perkins for United States Senator.

CLINTON G. DODGE,

Republican Nominee from the Fifty-First Assembly District.

The Legislative ticket is of greater importance than usual this year. It underlies a United States Senatorship and in that way has a direct bearing upon the affairs of the nation. Practically, therefore, Alameda county voters are expressing their choice for United States Senator when they are voting for a member of the State Legislature.

The Republican Legislative conventions have selected men well worthy of the honor and well qualified to perform the duties of legislators in the nominations they have made for State legislative representatives.

Clinton G. Dodge is the Republican nominee from the Fifty-first Assembly district. He has already served one term, and that in such an able and commendable way that he was fully entitled to the nomination for a second term, and his constituents would be lacking in a due appreciation of true merit if he were not re-elected with a much greater majority than he received at his first election.

Mr. Dodge was born in Syracuse, N. Y., in 1857. He received his early education in the common schools of that city. He removed to California in 1877, and for some time lived in Santa Cruz county. In 1880 and 1881 he was employed in Bradstreet's Commercial Agency in San Francisco, but being in poor health he came to Oakland to live. After his recovery he accepted the position of brakeman in the employ of the Southern Pacific Company. He followed this occupation for four years, but being of an ambitious and studious turn of mind he took up the study of the law during his leisure hours. He prosecuted his studies so satisfactorily that in 1885, while yet a brakeman, he passed a successful examination before the Supreme Court and was admitted to practice. The same year he abandoned railroading and took up the active duties of his profession.

Two years ago Mr. Dodge was elected to the Assembly by the Republicans of the Fifty-first district. He made a splendid record in the Legislature. He was a member of the more important committees, among them the Judiciary committee. His views were courted by his colleagues, and his advice was solicited on every important measure that came before the Assembly. A member of that stamp reflects credit upon his district, and an acknowledgment of it should be emphasized at the polls. If he is elected Mr. Dodge will be a candidate for the Speakership of the House.

BITS OF GOSSIP.

Joseph T. Field of Red Bank, N. J., is just 102 years of age. Before 1856 he was an Old Line Whig, and since then he has voted, without miss, the straight Republican ticket. He has three children, born since he was 72, and he is mentally as bright as the youngest.

Senator Peffer's son, who has been an assistant doorkeeper of the Senate since his pa took office, has been dropped from the rolls. Although a Populist, the bewhiskered Senator has demonstrated that he is something of a papulist. He succeeded in getting Government places for three of his boys. If his party ever gets into power Peffer may be able to place his whole family at the public crib.

Sir Holliday Macartney, although an Englishman, is secretary of the Chinese Legation in London.

Every one of England's royal princes wears a fac simile of his bride's wedding ring.

The Marquis de Villobal, who came to the Columbian Exposition with his brother, the Duke de Veragua, both guests of the nation as descendants of Columbus, is again in this country. Neither the Marquis nor any of his family is rich, and it is hinted that his mission is to revive the American subscription which was hurriedly begun and suddenly collapsed in Chicago last year.

William Barnes, a clerk in the Treasury Department, Washington, died October 16th. He entered the Government service during the last year of Buchanan's Administration, and his special duty was to handle and store treasury notes. Without doubt more money passed through his hands actually than was ever handled by any other man that ever lived. An idea of the amount of money which he has had in his temporary possession may be gleaned from the fact that one day a few years ago he lifted and stored in the vaults no less than $60,000,000.

Nicholas Alexandrovitch, the Czarewitch of Russia, unlike his imperial father, is short and delicate looking. He is a student rather than a warrior.

Now that Dr. Holmes is dead, Gladstone is the sole survivor of that remarkable group of men born in 1808. The list includes besides the two named, Lincoln, Darwin and Tennyson.

John W. Crisfield of Princess Anne, Md., is one of the oldest practicing lawyers in the United States. He sometimes appears before his son, Judge Henry Page, who dropped the paternal name many years ago. Mr. Crisfield has lived to see the odd little amphibious town that he founded and named for himself about thirty years ago grown into the most important place on the eastern shore of the Chesapeake.

How Could I Know?

So many flowers bloomed in that noonday sun,
How could I know
That when I trod on one
And crushed its golden glow,
Now wandering in dim lowlands, grown and sere,
The tiniest faded blossom would seem dear?
How could I know?

There were so many days the sunshine kissed,
How could I know,
When one I gaily missed
And laughing, let it go,
That in the long watches of some solemn night,
Dawn's dullest ray I should call heavenly bright?
How could I know?

So many dear ones in those happy years!
How could I know
That when I mocked their tears
And left them loving so,
In lonely, barren after-time I'd pray
For weakest touch of hands I flung away?
How could I know?

FOURTEENTH STREET.

An Application to Delay the Extension.

After the special meeting of the Council last evening a meeting of the Street Committee was held to hear a request from Messrs. Kittredge and Smith, representing the California Door and Sash Factory at West Oakland, that the proposed opening of Fourteenth street, west of Wood street to the water front, be postponed. Proceedings have been commenced by the Council for the opening of the street right through to the water front, which involves the condemnation of so much of the property on the line of the street extension as has not already been dedicated to public uses. That part of the extension of Fourteenth street, lying between Wood and Pine streets, is now occupied as a lumber yard by the door and sash factory, and Messrs. Kittredge and Smith desired to continue to use it as such until the roadway was actually needed and the stagnant pool further west was filled in. They supposed that the street was included in their property, as their deed so described it, but they were willing to waive that and file a disclaimer, in which they would consent to surrender the possession whenever the street was actually needed.

Mr. Barstow said there was a precedent for the acceptance of such a disclaimer, in the disclaimer which had been filed some years ago by Kirkham, Bacon and Keyes, to Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Fallon streets, east of Oak, and he was disposed to favor the proposition.

Towle thought that to protect the city's interests in other parts of the proposed extension, it would be necessary to push the proceeding which had been already started to a conclusion, no matter whether the disclaimers were filed or not. Anyhow, the abstract of title which the Council had procured, showed that the property to which Messrs. Kittredge and Smith proposed filing a disclaimer, was already city property, the street having been at some time in the past dedicated to the public. It was decided, however, that the Council should visit the premises next Tuesday afternoon and inspect it.

The committee then rose.

INTERESTING DISCOURSES.

Evangelist Martin Weil Entertains His Audiences.

Large audiences are packing Hamilton Hall from night to night to hear Rev. Dr. Martin, who is conducting a revival for Dr. Sweeney's congregation. His sermon Wednesday night "Zeal," while replete with fact and philosophy, was mirth-provoking in the extreme. In fact the audience was kept in a state of laughter almost from start to finish. Aside from the plain and scriptural presentation of gospel truths Dr. Martin, possessing such rare powers of elocution and facial expression, affords his audience a rich entertainment—is, in fact, a popular amusement. The audiences that flock to hear him seem to represent all "the faiths" and "no faiths" of the city.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

W. H. Dimond of the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco has written to Chairman Keller of the Board of Trade of this city, requesting him to appoint a committee of ten merchants to meet in joint convention with other public organizations of San Francisco and Oakland, Thursday, November 15th, at 2 P. M., in the hall of the Chamber of Commerce.

The question to be considered will be: "The Pressing Need of the Construction of the Nicaragua Canal."

It is expected that the California delegation in Congress will be in attendance.

A NEW HIGHWAY.

Peralta Avenue to Be Opened Up in Fine Style.

A movement is on foot to make Peralta avenue the great highway from East Oakland to San Leandro. It will run south of the San Leandro road, passing through Fitchburg and directly in front of Elmhurst Park, making the distance considerably shorter. Oakland is much in need of a good driveway in that direction as the travel is becoming very heavy.

No franchise of any kind will be granted to railroads over this road.

Dr. Anderson's Successor.

Next Sunday evening, Rev. F. White will deliver a lecture in St. Patrick's Church in West Oakland, on "The Genius of American Citizenship."

Art and Artists Saturday.

The new gallery will be opened Saturday by Walter J. Smith, who, for several years, was with W. W. Dames and is now the successor of E. D. Ormsby. Walter J. Smith is no stranger to us in the line of photography, and he has fitted up his parlors at 1055 Broadway in a most beautiful manner, having decorated, repainted and tinted the establishment in an up-to-date metropolitan style. On Saturday evening, Oct. 27th, Mr. Smith gives his initial opening to the public with a musical concert by the new orchestra under the leadership of Louis Homeier. It will be an evening of art and music both combined, and all are cordially invited to attend from 8 to 10 o'clock. Cut this notice out and present it at our studio and receive a receipt for $1 as part payment on a dozen cabinets.

FOURTEENTH STREET.

An Application to Defay the Extension.

After the special meeting of the Council last evening a meeting of the Street Committee was held to hear a request from Messrs. Kittredge and Smith, representing the California Door and Sash Factory at West Oakland, that the proposed opening of Fourteenth street, west of Wood street to the water front, be postponed. Proceedings have been commenced by the Council for the opening of the street right through to the water front, which involves the condemnation of so much of the property on the line of the street extension as has not already been dedicated to public uses. That part of the extension of Fourteenth street, lying between Wood and Pine streets, is now occupied as a lumber yard by the door and sash factory, and Messrs. Kittredge and Smith desired to continue to use it as such until the roadway was actually needed and the stagnant pool further west was filled in. They supposed that the street was included in their property, as their deed so described it, but they were willing to waive that and file a disclaimer, in which they would consent to surrender the possession whenever the street was actually needed.

Mr. Barstow said there was a precedent for the acceptance of such a disclaimer, in the disclaimer which had been filed some years ago by Kirkham, Bacon and Keyes, to Ninth, Tenth, Eleventh and Fallon streets, east of Oak, and he was disposed to favor the proposition.

Towle thought that to protect the city's interests in other parts of the proposed extension, it would be necessary to push the proceeding which had been already started to a conclusion, no matter whether the disclaimers were filed or not. Anyhow, the abstract of title which the Council had procured, showed that the property to which Messrs. Kittredge and Smith proposed filing a disclaimer, was already city property, the street having been at some time in the past dedicated to the public. It was decided, however, that the Council should visit the premises next Tuesday afternoon and inspect it.

The committee then rose.

INTERESTING DISCOURSES.

Evangelist Martin Weil Entertains His Audiences.

Large audiences are packing Hamilton Hall from night to night to hear Rev. Dr. Martin, who is conducting a revival for Dr. Sweeney's congregation. His sermon Wednesday night "Zeal," while replete with fact and philosophy, was mirth-provoking in the extreme. In fact the audience was kept in a state of laughter almost from start to finish. Aside from the plain and scriptural presentation of gospel truths Dr. Martin, possessing such rare powers of elocution and facial expression, affords his audience a rich entertainment—is, in fact, a popular amusement. The audiences that flock to hear him seem to represent all "the faiths" and "no faiths" of the city.

NICARAGUA CANAL.

A Committee of Oakland Citizens Called For.

W. H. Dimond of the Chamber of Commerce of San Francisco has written to Chairman Keller of the Board of Trade of this city, requesting him to appoint a committee of ten merchants to meet in joint convention with other public organizations of San Francisco and Oakland, Thursday, November 15th, at 2 P. M., in the hall of the Chamber of Commerce.

The question to be considered will be: "The Pressing Need of the Construction of the Nicaragua Canal."

It is expected that the California delegation in Congress will be in attendance.

A NEW HIGHWAY.

Peralta Avenue to Be Opened Up in Fine Style.

A movement is on foot to make Peralta avenue the great highway from East Oakland to San Leandro. It will run south of the San Leandro road, passing through Fitchburg and directly in front of Elmhurst Park, making the distance considerably shorter. Oakland is much in need of a good driveway in that direction as the travel is becoming very heavy.

No franchise of any kind will be granted to railroads over this road.

Dr. Anderson's Successor

The pulpit of the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Church, vacated by Rev. T. H. B. Anderson, who has gone to Sacramento, will be filled by Rev. George Baugh, a graduate of Oxford and, for many years Superintendent of Missions in India. He will preach here next Sunday.

Indicted Strikers.

J. W. West and Lee Williams, two alleged ex-strikers charged with obstructing the mails, were arrested yesterday. They were released by Judge Clift on giving bail in the sum of $400 each. Thirty more warrants against Oakland men will be served.

Next Sunday evening, Rev. F. White will deliver a lecture in St. Patrick's Church in West Oakland, on "The Genius of American Citizenship."

Art and Music Saturday.

The new gallery will be opened Saturday by Walter J. Smith, who, for several years, was with W. W. Dames and is now the successor of E. D. Ormsby. Walter J. Smith is no stranger to us in the line of photography, and he has fitted up his parlors at 1055 Broadway in a most beautiful manner, having decorated, repainted and tinted the establishment in an up-to-date metropolitan style. On Saturday evening, Oct. 27th, Mr. Smith gives his initial opening to the public with a musical concert by the new orchestra under the leadership of Louis Homeier. It will be an evening of art and music both combined, and all are cordially invited to attend from 8 to 10 o'clock. Cut this notice out and present it at our studio and receive a receipt for $1 as part payment on a dozen cabinets.

Good Days on the Street.

There was a great deal of excitement on Eleventh street, near Broadway, at noon today. It was at first supposed that somebody had been injured, but it was afterwards ascertained that the crowd was attracted by curiosity to witness the transhipment to San Francisco of two immense gold bars by means of the Whitney Rapid Transfer Company, whose office is a 1972 Broadway, corner Tenth street.

A SOUND MIND.

Gov. Stoneman Knew "a Thing or Two."

Business Sense Taught Him Early in His Life.

How He Built Up a Competency During the Mining Days.

Kate Field, in her Washington, narrates some interesting reminiscences of the late Governor Stoneman. When he was a young lieutenant he crossed the continent with General Kearny and was encamped for a time near San Gabriel Mission, in charge of a squadron of cavalry watching some of Fremont's volunteers, who were camped at the Mission. It was there he saw and coveted the ownership of the land which, thirty years ago, became his home and on which he had hoped to live and die. But the latter part of the dream of his young manhood was dispelled by the skeleton which stalked into the family closet, estranging him from wife and home and embittering his last days.

When the gold excitement broke out in California Stoneman's salary was $83 33 per month. He saw bad carriers earning $100 a month and keep, carpenters and blacksmiths earning $16 per day, and the prices of the necessaries of life rise like the mercury in the thermometer on a hot day.

The young lieutenant with his meager salary, was threatened with starvation. It was a serious question with him. He solved it by applying to headquarters for six month's leave of absence, as he said "In order that I may be able to go to work and earn my living, and not be obliged to either beg, borrow or steal!"

An application like that had to be respected. It was promptly granted and young Stoneman turned horsetrader, buying stock cheap in the southern counties, driving them up to the mines and selling them at fancy prices to the miners. By the time the leave of absence expired, Stoneman had placed himself beyond the reach of want.

CUTTING HIS BUSINESS TEETH.

Stoneman was keen enough at trade. He had reason to be so. He cut his business teeth early in life. When a boy he tried his hand at selling melons raised on his father's farm. He took some with him to the market town on "muster day"—a day set for military training in the rural districts of his native State—and sold them at prices ranging from 1 cent upward. All except one large melon was disposed of. For this he asked 25 cents. A purchaser turned up for this, and offered him a silver dollar, demanding change in return. To young Stoneman, it looked amazingly large, but he made the change and the trade. Here was the first dollar piece he had ever earned. He was as proud of it as a small child is of a new toy. He showed it to his father's hired man. Alas, for human faith and Stoneman's youthful joy! The silver was demonstrated to him to be nothing but lead, and, consequently, worthless. He was so disgusted that he threw the counterfeit into a neighboring lake. The experience was a bitter one to the boy, but it sharpened his wits and taught him a lesson he never forgot.

All through life Stoneman showed how he had profited by the lesson. When he bought his San Gabriel ranch, which he had coveted for over thirty years, he had nothing to pay for it but the pay of a retired cavalry colonel. A mortgage on the property had been foreclosed by ex-Governor Downey, and it was transferred to Stoneman on a renewed mortgage, as Downey had more faith in him than in the man he had been compelled to close out.

Southern California was then very little known. Only a small population of whites resided there. A comparatively small acreage was under cultivation in San Gabriel valley. Short, Rose, Kewen and Stoneman were among its pioneer wine and fruit growers.

Downey, as a bank president, thought he had made a good trade. Stoneman, as the buyer, knew that he had made a good one. While other men were short of farm laborers, he had plenty at command, because he had foreseen the necessity of securing laborers at the right season, and he furnished comfortable homes for his men and their families on the place, setting aside small tracts of land for them to cultivate for their own use.

While other wine growers were selling their raw vintages for a bagatelle, Stoneman cellared his for a better market. It increased in value faster than the interest accumulated on the money which he had to borrow to keep the ranch going. In a few years he paid for the ranch and all the improvements which he put upon it out of its own earnings. The lead dollar experience of his boyhood had made a keen, shrewd business manager of him.

GEORGE ELLIOTT'S FUNERAL

Many Mourners at the Impressive Services.

The funeral of the late George Elliott, the Southern Pacific conductor who was accidentally killed near Rodeo last Monday night, took place yesterday at 2 o'clock. The services were held in Albert Brown's undertaking parlors and attracted a large number of fellow railroad friends of the deceased as also a number of sympathetic friends. Rev. L. T. Bush of the First Baptist Church officiated.

The music was rendered by Professor and Mrs. Annie Pollitt, the selections being: "Flee as a Bird," "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," the first and last pieces being sung by request.

Among the mourners were the wife, the father and mother of the deceased from Gonzales, and Mr. Bently, a brother of Mrs. Elliott, from Fresno. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, especially those of El Capitan Division, No. 115, Order of Railway Conductors, of which the deceased was a member.

WANTS HEAVY DAMAGES.

Carl Bygum's Loss by His Son's Death.

The suit of Carl Bygum against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to recover $50,100 damages for the death of his son, Christian C. Bygum, is on trial before Judge Ellsworth and a jury in the Superior Court today.

Bygum's son was run over and killed by a train while crossing the track at University avenue, West Berkeley, on November 4, 1888. The task of securing a jury favorable to both sides was a very difficult one and nearly the entire morning was consumed in the work.

The case is attracting considerable interest and the courtroom was crowded with people anxious to hear the testimony.

The railroad company is represented by A. A. Moore and J. C. Martin of this city. Jennings & Hubbs of San Francisco are the attorneys for the plaintiff.

A SOUND MIND.

Gov. Stoneman Knew "a Thing or Two."

Business Sense Taught Him Early in His Life.

How He Built Up a Competency During the Mining Days.

Kate Field, in her Washington, narrates some interesting reminiscences of the late Governor Stoneman. When he was a young lieutenant he crossed the continent with General Kearny and was encamped for a time near San Gabriel Mission, in charge of a squadron of cavalry watching some of Fremont's volunteers, who were camped at the Mission. It was there he saw and coveted the ownership of the land which, thirty years ago, became his home and on which he had hoped to live and die. But the latter part of the dream of his young manhood was dispelled by the skeleton which stalked into the family closet, estranging him from wife and home and embittering his last days.

When the gold excitement broke out in California Stoneman's salary was $83 33 per month. He saw hod carriers earning $100 a month and keep, carpenters and blacksmiths earning $16 per day, and the prices of the necessaries of life rise like the mercury in the thermometer on a hot day.

The young lieutenant with his meager salary, was threatened with starvation. It was a serious question with him. He solved it by applying to headquarters for six month's leave of absence, as he said "In order that I may be able to go to work and earn my living, and not be obliged to either beg, borrow or steal!"

An application like that had to be respected. It was promptly granted and young Stoneman turned horsetrader, buying stock cheap in the southern counties, driving them up to the mines and selling them at fancy prices to the miners. By the time the leave of absence expired, Stoneman had placed himself beyond the reach of want.

CUTTING HIS BUSINESS TEETH.

Stoneman was keen enough at trade. He had reason to be so. He cut his business teeth early in life. When a boy he tried his hand at selling melons raised on his father's farm. He took some with him to the market town on "muster day"—a day set for military training in the rural districts of his native State—and sold them at prices ranging from 1 cent upward. All except one large melon was disposed of. For this he asked 25 cents. A purchaser turned up for this, and offered him a silver dollar, demanding change in return. To young Stoneman, it looked amazingly large, but he made the change and the trade. Here was the first dollar piece he had ever earned. He was as proud of it as a small child is of a new toy. He showed it to his father's hired man. Alas, for human faith and Stoneman's youthful joy! The silver was demonstrated to him to be nothing but lead, and, consequently, worthless. He was so disgusted that he threw the counterfeit into a neighboring lake. The experience was a bitter one to the boy, but it sharpened his wits and taught him a lesson he never forgot.

All through life Stoneman showed how he had profited by the lesson. When he bought his San Gabriel ranch, which he had coveted for over thirty years, he had nothing to pay for it but the pay of a retired cavalry colonel. A mortgage on the property had been foreclosed by ex-Governor Downey, and it was transferred to Stoneman on a renewed mortgage, as Downey had more faith in him than in the man he had been compelled to close out.

Southern California was then very little known. Only a small population of whites resided there. A comparatively small acreage was under cultivation in San Gabriel valley. Short, Rose, Kewen and Stoneman were among its pioneer wine and fruit growers.

Downey, as a bank president, thought he had made a good trade. Stoneman, as the buyer, knew that he had made a good one. While other men were short of farm laborers, he had plenty at command, because he had foreseen the necessity of securing laborers at the right season, and he furnished comfortable homes for his men and their families on the place, setting aside small tracts of land for them to cultivate for their own use.

While other wine growers were selling their raw vintages for a bagatelle, Stoneman cellared his for a better market. It increased in value faster than the interest accumulated on the money which he had to borrow to keep the ranch going. In a few years he paid for the ranch and all the improvements which he put upon it out of its own earnings. The lead dollar experience of his boyhood had made a keen, shrewd business manager of him.

GEORGE ELLIOTT'S FUNERAL

Many Mourners at the Impressive Services.

The funeral of the late George Elliott, the Southern Pacific conductor who was accidentally killed near Rodeo last Monday night, took place yesterday at 2 o'clock. The services were held in Albert Brown's undertaking parlors and attracted a large number of fellow railroad friends of the deceased as also a number of sympathetic friends. Rev. L. T. Bush of the First Baptist Church officiated.

The music was rendered by Professor and Mrs. Annie Pollitt, the selections being: "Flee as a Bird," "One Sweetly Solemn Thought," and "God Be With You 'Till We Meet Again," the first and last pieces being sung by request.

Among the mourners were the wife, the father and mother of the deceased from Gonzales, and Mr. Bently, a brother of Mrs. Elliott, from Fresno. The floral tributes were numerous and beautiful, especially those of El Capitan Division, No. 115, Order of Railway Conductors, of which the deceased was a member.

The remains were laid away in Mountain View Cemetery, the pallbearers being: W. F. Heckell, L. F. Ryan, F. Graves, H. G. Torrence, G. L. Gaunce and G. L. Colgrove of the Oakland Railroad Company.

Carl Bygum's Loss by His Son's Death.

The suit of Carl Bygum against the Southern Pacific Railroad Company to recover $50,100 damages for the death of his son, Christian C. Bygum, is on trial before Judge Ellsworth and a jury in the Superior Court today.

Bygum's son was run over and killed by a train while crossing the track at University avenue, West Berkeley, on November 4, 1888. The task of securing a jury favorable to both sides was a very difficult one and nearly the entire morning was consumed in the work.

The case is attracting considerable interest and the courtroom was crowded with people anxious to hear the testimony.

Initiates Run for the Skull and Keys.

Humorous Exercises Held Upon the Campus.

A Large Crowd Was Present and Enjoyed the Sport.

The "running" of initiates for the Skull and Keys, the swell secret society of the college, took place on the campus of the University grounds yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance to witness the students perform all sorts of ridiculous acts.

Preliminary "running" had been going on all day to the consternation of the people in the library and the recitation rooms. The main part, however, came off in the afternoon. The fun was started by two young men coming from the gymnasium to the football field, one carrying an advertising sandwich, labelled, "U. C.—Relief Football Game," and the other bearing a large bell. They paraded up and down before the grand stand, which was filled with people.

More students then appeared, one clad in his dress suit and who declaimed on the good the University was doing and how they had got the great Gill. One of his friends was attired as Uncle Sam, and one in his oldest clothes. Another was a policeman, and others with rakes and hoes cleaned the gridiron.

The "pot cannon" chased a small boy off the field, scaring him nearly to death and dropping him over the fence when caught. Another played a hand organ and another carried a sack of beans and sold fortune tablets.

Two young men were compelled to act as valets to two students who made a morning call on a young lady. They carried their masters' umbrellas and valises, and at the house dusted their shoes, turned down their trousers and brushed their clothes. On entering the dwelling they were only permitted to go into the hall and were not allowed to recognize the young lady. They had to follow their masters around, and perform all the acts of servants.

The following were the initiates: Messrs. Chamberlain, Baldwin, Eckert, Brown, Corbett, Holmes, Hutchins, Blake, Graham.

AGAINST THE RAILROAD.

Damages Awarded for Refusing to Give Stopover Privileges.

Another judgment has been entered against the Southern Pacific Company for refusing stopover privileges. Judge Seawell of San Francisco has rendered judgments in favor of the plaintiff for $200 in the suit of L. S. Robinson against the Southern Pacific Company. The case was practically the same nature as the one won by Dr. W. H. Robinson in the Supreme Court. The plaintiff purchased a ticket in San Francisco for Alameda. He stopped over in this city and then took the next train for Alameda. He was forced to pay a fare between Oakland and Alameda. The court holds that he had a right to stopover and should have been allowed to have made the whole journey without being forced to pay an additional fare. There are many other suits of a like character still pending.

When the Baby is Cutting Teeth

The Best Teacher.

The Arabs say that the best teacher is Time That is true, especially when year after year enforces the same lesson. For more than thirty years ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have been in use in every part of the world, and the testimony is universal as to their value as an external remedy for pains of every kind in the back, chest and side. Some people have learned the lesson so well that they try to imitate them, and the result is a host of counterfeits, all pretending to be just as good as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, and unconscious that by this very statement they acknowledge that ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS hold the first place. Be sure and get the genuine.

QUAINT ANTICS.

Initiates Run for the Skull and Keys.

Humorous Exercises Held Upon the Campus.

A Large Crowd Was Present and Enjoyed the Sport.

The "running" of initiates for the Skull and Keys, the swell secret society of the college, took place on the campus of the University grounds yesterday afternoon. A large crowd was in attendance to witness the students perform all sorts of ridiculous acts.

Preliminary "running" had been going on all day to the consternation of the people in the library and the recitation rooms. The main part, however, came off in the afternoon. The fun was started by two young men coming from the gymnasium to the football field, one carrying an advertising sandwich, labelled, "U. C.—Relis 'e Football Game," and the other bearing a large bell. They paraded up and down before the grand stand, which was filled with people.

More students then appeared, one clad in his dress suit and who declaimed on the good the University was doing and how they had got the great G ll. One of his friends was attired as Uncle Sam, and one in his oldest clothes. Another was a policeman, and others with rakes and hoes cleaned the gridiron.

The "pol ceman" chased a small boy off the field, scaring him nearly to death and dropping him over the fence when caught. Another played a hand organ and another carried a sack of beans and sold fruit tablets.

Two young men were compelled to act as valets to two students who made a morning call on a young lady. They carried their masters' umbrellas and valises, and at the house dusted their shoes, turned down their trousers and brushed their clothes. On entering the dwelling they were only permitted to go into the hall and were not allowed to recognize the young lady. They had to follow their masters around, and perform all the acts of servants.

The following were the initiates: Messrs. Chamberlain, Baldwin, Eckert, Brown, Corbett, Holmes, Hutchins, Blake, Graham.

AGAINST THE RAILROAD.

Damages Awarded for Refusing to Give Stopover Privileges.

Another judgment has been entered against the Southern Pacific Company for refusing stopover privileges. Judge Seawell of San Francisco has rendered judgments in favor of the plaintiff for $200 in the suit of L. S. Robinson against the Southern Pacific Company. The case was practically the same nature as the one won by Dr. W. H. Robinson in the Supreme Court. The plaintiff purchased a ticket in San Francisco for Alameda. He stopped over in this city and then took the next train for Alameda. He was forced to pay a fare between Oakland and Alameda. The court holds that he had a right to stopover and should have been allowed to have made the whole journey without being forced to pay an additional fare. There are many other suits of a like character still pending.

The Best Teacher.

The Arabs say that the best teacher is Time That is true, especially when year after year enforces the same lesson. For more than thirty years ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS have been in use in every part of the world, and the testimony is universal as to their value as an external remedy for pains of every kind in the back, chest and side. Some people have learned the lesson so well that they try to imitate them, and the result is a host of counterfeits, all pretending to be just as good as ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS, and unconscious that by this very statement they acknowledge that ALLCOCK'S POROUS PLASTERS hold the first place. Be sure and get the genuine.

A TILE LOOSE.

Record Obtained of Cleveland's Crank Caller.

He Was in an Insane Asylum in Germany.

The Authorities Exported Him, for He Was an American.

NEW YORK, October 26.—Richard Goerdler, the man who wanted to interview President Cleveland and who attracted attention some time ago by challenging Emperor William to fight a duel, is a native of Larinweider province, West Prussia. He emigrated to the United States about seven years ago and became a naturalized American citizen in Kentucky in due course of time.

In 1892 Goerdler was sent to Germany by Henry Villard, it is claimed, to act as agent of the Northern Pacific.

While occupying this position Goerdler organized a party of celebrated Germans who were invited to participate in the opening of the railroad referred to.

Some time after Goerdler's father died in Germany and the heirs got into a fight about the estate.

Richard Goerdler considered himself wronged by his brother, but the German courts decided against him, and he then began the fight against the courts, accusing them of conspiracy.

When the German Secretary of Justice decided against him Goerdler accused that official of being in the plot, and wound up by challenging the Emperor of Germany to fight a duel.

A special jury of medical men was called upon to pronounce on Goerdler's sanity.

They pronounced him hopelessly out of his mind and he was not guilty of the crime of Les Majeste and sent to an insane asylum, where his brother paid the expenses for a time.

But when the brother stopped paying the expense in the asylum the authorities informed the officials of the United States Legation of Goerdler being an American citizen and a care to the community and that they would let him go, and inquired whether there would be any objections on the part of the United States authorities, as represented by the Immigration Commissioners, to allow Goerdler to land in America if he was sent back to the United States.

In some manner, not explained, the whole matter was postponed and Richard Goerdler's brother resumed paying his expenses and continued so doing for a time.

But he stopped again and the question of returning Goerdler to the United States again came to the front, as the Germans decided they had no right to burden the community with him.

Eventually the State Department at Washington decided that Goerdler being an American citizen, could not be prevented from landing, and he was consequently sent back to this country, last year as a saloon passenger on board the steamer Havel, the expenses of the trip being partly paid by his brother and partly by the Prussian Government, the latter taking care to inform the officials of the United States Embassy as to Goerdler's movement, in order that he might be taken care of on his arrival here.

Before leaving Germany Goerdler threatened to return to that country and continue to wage his so-called war for justice.

Last week it was announced that Goerdler was flooding the public offices of Berlin with a pamphlet entitled "Fiat Justitia," in which he recited his experience in trying to obtain a legacy at Hamm, Westphalia.

Goerdler wanted the Emperor of Germany to fight him with pistols, claiming that he as an American citizen was also a monarch and the equal of the Kaiser.

KICKED in the KNEE.

Mail Carrier Weston Laid up for Repairs.

William Weston, one of the mail-wagon drivers in connection with the postoffice, was seriously injured yesterday by being kicked by the horse he was driving. The animal backed and a companion of Weston's, who was on the seat of the vehicle at the time struck the horse with a stick. The animal resented by letting his heels fly, striking young Weston on the right limb below the knee. The shoe of the animal caused a fearful gash and the fracture of the bone. Weston is confined to his bed at Contractor Martin's home, Thirty-second and Chestnut streets.

Smart Expressmen

The Oakland expressmen, with the superior intelligence which prevails this side of the estuary, have succeeded in beating the famous Alameda license ordinance. The ordinance says that an expressman's license shall be $10 per annum, but by taking out three licenses he can run as many wagons as he desires. So a series of combinations have been formed, known as moving companies. As individual companies, each has taken three licenses out and the schemers are running several wagons with the license for three.

A TILE LOOSE.

Record Obtained of Cleveland's Crank Caller.

He Was in an Insane Asylum in Germany.

The Authorities Exported Him, for He Was an American.

NEW YORK, October 26.—Richard Goerdler, the man who wanted to interview President Cleveland and who attracted attention some time ago by challenging Emperor William to fight a duel, is a native of Lariswelder province, West Prussia. He emigrated to the United States about seven years ago and became a naturalized American citizen in Kentucky in due course of time.

In 1892 Goerdler was sent to Germany by Henry Villard, it is claimed, to act as agent of the Northern Pacific.

While occupying this position Goerdler organized a party of celebrated Germans who were invited to participate in the opening of the railroad referred to.

Some time after Goerdler's father died in Germany and the heirs got into a fight about the estate.

Richard Goerdler considered himself wronged by his brother, but the German courts decided against him, and he then began the fight against the courts, accusing them of conspiracy.

When the German Secretary of Justice decided against him Goerdler accused that official of being in the plot, and wound up by challenging the Emperor of Germany to fight a duel.

A special jury of medical men was called upon to pronounce on Goerdler's sanity.

They pronounced him hopelessly out of his mind and he was not guilty of the crime of Los Majeste and sent to an insane asylum, where his brother paid the expenses for a time.

But when the brother stopped paying the expense in the asylum the authorities informed the officials of the United States Legation of Goerdler being an American citizen and a care to the community and that they would let him go, and inquired whether there would be any objections on the part of the United States authorities, as represented by the Immigration Commissioners, to allow Goerdler to land in America if he was sent back to the United States.

In some manner, not explained, the whole matter was postponed and Richard Goerdler's brother resumed paying his expenses and continued so doing for a time.

But he stopped again and the question of returning Goerdler to the United States again came to the front, as the Germans decided they had no right to burden the community with him.

Eventually the State Department at Washington decided that Goerdler being an American citizen, could not be prevented from landing, and he was consequently sent back to this country, last year as a saloon passenger on board the steamer Havel, the expenses of the trip being partly paid by his brother and partly by the Prussian Government, the latter taking care to inform the officials of the United States Embassy as to Goerdler's movement, in order that he might be taken care of on his arrival here.

Before leaving Germany Goerdler threatened to return to that country and continue to wage his so-called war for justice.

Last week it was announced that Goerdler was flooding the public offices of Berlin with a pamphlet entitled "Fiat Justitia," in which he recited his experience in trying to obtain a legacy at Hamm, Westphalia.

Goerdler wanted the Emperor of Germany to fight him with pistols, claiming that he as an American citizen was also a monarch and the equal of the Kaiser.

KICKED IN THE KNEE.

Mail Carrier Weston Laid up for Repairs.

William Weston, one of the mail-wagon drivers in connection with the postoffice, was seriously injured yesterday by being kicked by the horse he was driving. The animal backed and a companion of Weston's, who was on the seat of the vehicle at the time struck the horse with a stick. The animal resented by letting his heels fly, striking young Weston on the right limb below the knee. The shoe of the animal caused a fearful gash and the fracture of the bone. Weston is confined to his bed at Contractor Martin's home, Thirty-second and Chestnut streets.

Smart Expressmen

The Oakland expressmen, with the superior intelligence which prevails this side of the estuary, have succeeded in beating the famous Alameda license ordinance. The ordinance says that an expressman's license shall be $10 per annum, but by taking out three licenses he can run as many wagons as he desires. So a series of combinations have been formed, known as moving companies. As individual companies, each has taken three licenses out and the schemers are running several wagons with the license for three.

We, who knew him best, can most truly appreciate the sentiments you so eloquently express in your beautifully and tenderly worded tribute.
